His Hebrew Name

“...For there is no other name under heaven...” ~ Right?

Acts 4:12 Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.

It is important that we talk about this first because it sets the stage for everything else that I am going to share with you in, the “Survival Guide to the Great Tribulation.” Christ said this event would come before the end of the world.

Mathew 24:3 And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world?

Here are a few names that we use to describe our Savior: Jesus, Prince of Peace, Counselor, The Savior, Son of Man, The Way, The Truth, The Life, The Messiah, The Christ, The Son of God. There are more names for him however they all refer to the same person.

Was the author of the book of Acts being too specific to proclaim that the name, “Jesus” was the only name to call on for our salvation, or can we also call on, “the Son of God” to be saved?

If you are like me, you probably have at this point already made your mind up. I mean, all the really good worship songs use the name Jesus and to sing them with his Hebrew name, Yahshua, doesn't fit, right?

I have said in times past that, "His name has never been an issue for me." At least that is what I thought when I first heard someone refer to, "Jesus" by his Hebrew name, "Yahshua."

As far back as I can recall, our Savior was always called, Jesus. The go-to response for me and for also many others was to point out that we speak English. We, humble, devout, believers rush within ourselves to point out that God divided the languages at Babylon. We say, “I grew up speaking English and “Jesus” was always his English name.” I mean, after all, it is the English name used in the Bible, right?

But the dividing of the languages in Babylon was a punishment from God.

It was not a walk of honor to be divided and dispersed. We should not embrace what happened in Babylon with the language chaos as a good thing that happened. One language was spoken by everyone. God pointed out to us that their communication was a key factor in the construction of the tower. To prevent the people from continuing to build God disrupted their communication. This was the element that God used to disperse the people that were trying to reach heaven, "their way" by building an eight-mile-high tower to reach Heaven and Killing God.

With that said I believe that the world will soon reach the technology where everyone will have access to devices that will enable the individual to understand each other's languages, and the focus will once again be on reaching Heaven our way, together with a global plan to attack the biblical threat from space. I am saying this because we all need to understand that The Great Tribulation ends with Christ returning from Heaven with his armies and riding a white horse. When he returns from Heaven he then divides the sheep from the goats and separates the wheat from the chaff. He then destroys the goats and burns the chaff. Then after his return, New Jerusalem, The Holy City, comes down out of Heaven much like we have been programmed since birth to imagine an alien spaceship that appears as a threat to the Earth's inhabitants.

During my walk with God, as a student of scripture, and for my personal life now, I am at the point where I refer to our savior by his Hebrew name, “Yahshua.” I am going to use the name, Yahshua, in place of, Jesus, for some very enlightening reasons.

By the end of this Bible commentary, you may see why his Hebrew name plays a key role in The Great Tribulation that he spoke of in the Book of Mathew. Throughout this book I will be using the name,

Yahshua, to describe our Savior, and I will be using the title, “Elohim” to describe the English title, “God” in this Bible Commentary. We should also note that when I say, “El Shaddai” I am referring to “God Almighty” and the name, “Yahuah” is the Hebrew equivalent of the English name, “Jehovah.”

Everything that I share with you in this Bible commentary will help you escape from taking “the mark of the beast” that The Apostle John wrote of in Revelation Chapter 13:16 with respect to the Antichrist, the end times, or The Great Tribulation.

Rev 13:16 And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:

Buy Or Sell

Chapter Two

Commerce takes place as a common practice throughout scripture; however, the Apostle John makes an interesting statement when it comes to the Beast, the mark and buying, and selling in Revelation Chapter 13.

Rev 13:16 And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:

Rev 13:17 And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

Rev 13:18 Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six.

Interestingly, electronic money is now playing a key role in our lives for just about every purchase or sale agreement. These tactics reign true, especially where a bank or food or the things we need to survive are involved.

The pandemic has led many to believe that "the mark" is the vaccine that was forced on everyone within the past three years.

Friend, I do not doubt that there will be many Christs that we will be told will save the world. The Antichrist is an imitator. He has to have a mark because Yahuah has a mark that is also spoken of in the book of Revelation.

At this point, I would like to make a note here that I repeat things throughout this book. Repeating is rehearsing and rehearsing is what Elohim had Israel do with the law, with the feasts, and with the Sabbath so that they would be in the right place at the right time for everything that was to come. With that said, I am going to ask, but I do not want you to answer me, answer yourself. Do you remember the Sabbath and keep it Holy? This is one of the Ten Commandments that highlights and observes the CREATION STORY. Why is that important?

Understand this, The bible begins at the tree of life with Adam listening to Elohim's voice when Adam disobeyed him over food instructions and ends with the book of Revelation with Christ knocking on a church door stating that he will feast with the ones that hear his voice. The book concludes with the grand finale, ending with feasting from the tree of life with everyone that heard his voice.

Understand this; Christ was in the wilderness for forty days fasting resulting in him being hungry. The tempter tempted him to turn stone into bread to relieve his hunger. The bread was the default food that Adam was to eat instead of the fruit from the tree of life after he was driven out of Eden.

Mathew 4:3 And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread.

Mat 4:4 But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

Mat 4:5 Then the devil taketh him up into the holy city, and setteth him on a pinnacle of the temple,

Mat 4:6 And saith unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written, He shall give his angels charge concerning thee: and in their hands, they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

Mat 4:7 Jesus said unto him, It is written again, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

Mat 4:8 Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them;

Mat 4:9 And saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me.

Mat 4:10 Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

Mat 4:11 Then the devil leaveth him, and, behold, angels came and ministered unto him.

So for me, the first thing that comes to mind is that we all know that God has power. The tempter goes out of his way to highlight this point. This power can be used for good, right? I mean the tempter gave a legitimate argument that would solve the problem Yahshua had, right?

“If you are God’s son, call on him,

IT IS WRITTEN, he has angels that can fix this life and death problem!”

~I am paraphrasing the tempter of course.

Let me ask you, are you buying this story? Are you buying that Yahshua went forty days without food? Are you buying that the tempter also showed Yahshua all the kingdoms of the world at that moment?

Understand this; the tempter used the problem as a segue into quoting scripture. The Serpent quoted the word of Elohim in Eden with Eve.

Let's say that you do buy that this legitimately happened. Let's say you wholeheartedly believe every word. Can you in turn sell the same story to others and keep the story accurate and truthful?

I ask this because the book of Revelation begins with Christ asking a church to buy something.

Well, that is a strange request, isn't it?

Revelation 3:18 I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see.

Biblical Truth is bought and sold. Buy his truth and you will be wealthy and dressed right and you will see a clear path to safety.

I said all this because Revelation Chapter 13 talks about a mark that you cannot buy nor sell anything without having it forced on you on your right hand or forehead.

Interestingly, we are led to believe that it is about a mark that controls the purchases and sales of products; however the word, "trade" is not used.

Trade was a common practice throughout the entire Bible yet the practice is not mentioned in this very specific context because the mark, the beast's name, and the number all represent the same thing. That thing is the name of the Beast, the name of the antichrist. You cannot buy his lies if you do not embrace his name with what you do with your hands nor what you believe between your eyes.

Will you buy his lies and will you sell them? You can't without his mark because his mark counterfeits the mark of Yahuah.

Yahshua asked someone, "what is the greatest commandment?"

If you are a bible believer, I bet you know the answer because you bought it without questioning it. I would bet that you even share or sell it to others as if it is gold.

Now, I used to loosely share the Revelation chapter 13 Mark of the Beast story saying that no one could buy, sell or trade anything without the mark. I would point to bar codes and images that had 666 on them. Did you notice that I added the word “trade” to the text? In doing so I made it about products.

The only way to avoid taking the mark of the beast is to take the mark of Yahuah. Well, where is that in scripture?

Deuteronomy Chapter 6 tells us how to retain the Mark of Yahuah.

Deu 6:4 Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God is one LORD:

Deu 6:5 And thou shalt love the LORD thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might.

Deu 6:6 And these words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart:

Deu 6:7 And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up.

Deu 6:8 And thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thine hand, and they shall be as frontlets between thine eyes.

Do you buy that scripture as truth?
Would you sell it the same way?

Would you say to others, “look friend I have gold for you and it will make your nakedness covered and you will see everything correctly?”

The Revealing

The word “Apocalypse” is probably one of the most miss used words to describe the end times because the word means to reveal. The opening statement of Revelation is that Yahshua is revealed to the seven churches mentioned to which the letter is written. Apocalypse is a Greek word that many have used in place of the word Revelation because the word sounds scary and that is the doomsday charade we love to embrace. The book tells us many things but the keynote of the title is that Christ is revealed to the seven churches mentioned. With all of that said we need to talk about Daniel. Daniel was taken captive with three friends, each as a young man. When we tell his story we use his name, Daniel, however, when he was captive he was given the name Belteshazzar by those that enslaved him.

Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego are the heathen names that were given to Daniel's Israeli companions Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah.

Dan 1:6 Now among these were of the children of Judah, Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah:

Dan 1:7 Unto whom the prince of the eunuchs gave names: for he gave unto Daniel the name of Belteshazzar; and to Hananiah, of Shadrach; and to Mishael, of

Meshach; and to Azariah, of Abednego.

When we talk about these Bible characters that were taken captive into Babylon from Israel most people refer to Daniel as Daniel and not Belteshazzar however they immediately jump to the heathen names when talking about the others that were placed in the fiery furnace. I could reveal the proper names but we are so compelled to call them by their heathen names that the interpreter that translated the names to English for our Bibles kept the heathen names each time the young men are described for their part across the first three chapters in the historical story.

When sharing the story, you might say, “Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego were kept alive in the fiery furnace.” You would be sharing a Biblical truth about the real young men but that truth would be received as an insult to these young men that were abducted, held captive, and given unrighteous names that were not their real names.

In chapter one, I revealed that I am now more comfortable using the name Yahshua when describing our Savior. There are times when I use the name Jesus but hopefully as you learn what I am about to reveal, you will see why his name as Yahshua plays a key role when it comes to the believer Surviving, The Great Tribulation without taking the mark of the beast.

“His Sheep”

Yahshua describes the sinner as his sheep that has gone astray. You wander through life and HE SEEKS YOU OUT! He left the flock behind and he searches for you and finds you where you are. He has great joy within himself because you were lost and He searched for you and found you. He doesn't let you return on your power; instead, he picks you up and carries you with your legs around his neck. He returns and gathers his friends and neighbors and announces to them the great news that you were found! Everyone CHEERS!

Luke 15:1 Then drew near unto him all the publicans and sinners for to hear him.

Luke 15:2 And the Pharisees and scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners, and eateth with them.

Luke 15:3 And he spake this parable unto them, saying,

Luke 15:4 What man of you, having an hundred sheep, if he lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it?

Luke 15:5 And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing.

Luke 15:6 And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbors, saying unto them, Rejoice with me; for I have found my sheep which was lost.

Luke 15:7 I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine just persons, which need no repentance.

Are you lost today?

Has your sin taken you to a place where you are alone, helpless, and vulnerable?

In another scripture, Yahshua said, “My sheep hear my voice and follow me.”

John 10:27 My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me:

Can you see the whole host of heaven waiting and getting excited as they see you recognize that you need to turn away from everything that leads you away from his flock?

What does it mean to repent? It means to turn away from sin and turn back to his law, The Torah, and delight in it. Read that again.

Psalm 1:1 Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

Psalm 1:2 But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

Psalm 1:3 And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

Psalm 1:4 The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

Psalm 1:5 Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

Psalm 1:6 For the LORD knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

He is walking through the wilderness that you wandered into and he is calling out for you. Do you hear his voice?

When his sheep hear his voice they follow him.

Proverbs 3:1 My son, forget not my law; but let thine heart keep my commandments:

Proverbs 3:2 For length of days, and long life, and peace, shall they add to thee.

Proverbs 3:3 Let not mercy and truth forsake thee: bind them about thy neck; write them upon the table of thine heart:

Proverbs 3:4 So shalt thou find favour and good understanding in the sight of God and man.

Proverbs 3:5 Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.

Proverbs 3:6 In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

Proverbs 3:7 Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the LORD, and depart from evil.

Proverbs 3:8 It shall be health to thy navel, and marrow to thy bones.

Proverbs 3:9 Honour the LORD with thy substance, and with the firstfruits of all thine increase:

Proverbs 3:10 So shall thy barns be filled with plenty, and thy presses shall burst out with new wine.

Proverbs 3:11 My son, despise not the chastening of the LORD; neither be weary of his correction:

Proverbs 3:12 For whom the LORD loveth he correcteth; even as a father the son in whom he delighteth.

I can see the host of heaven like a crowd in a football stadium watching you in the center of the field and you can feel the excitement as they see your eyes opening up and you hear his voice through the darkness.

He finds you where you are and you hear his voice and turn to him. The crowd goes wild with a roar of excitement as they see that you are found!

He is speaking to you now where you are in life. You are in great darkness. Turn to him and run toward his voice and jump into his arms and let him carry you home. The entire host of heaven is watching and cheering! He picks you up. You are in his hands and no man can pluck you out. He is in his father's hands and no man can pluck him out. Now you can rest in him.

~ Amen

Chapter Five

"Knock, Knock!"

"My sheep hear my voice and follow me..." This phrase, said by Yahshua, should terrify all of us every time we are sure we are right about something scriptural. Is it his voice or are we playing Christianity? At the church of the Laodiceans in the Book of Revelation, Yahshua is outside the church's door, knocking.

Did you get that; can you see him standing there? The door is closed and everyone is inside.

He is not in the "church building" with the people, and there is a physical door barring or blocking "his" way to enter.

His words of Revelation 3:20 are a plea or a calling out for anyone inside the church building to listen.

"...if any man hears my voice, and opens the door, I will come into him..."

Interesting that he didn't say, "If any man hears my knock,” right? Here we have Christ and he is outside the church building knocking on the door. Inside, no doubt, they are singing and the pastor is preaching and the people are listening to all the “God words” that move them, and they are all trying to connect through song and prayer to the one person that is not even in the building. He is not participating in the event, the customs, and traditions nor the show going on inside.

We should all be concerned as to why he is not part of the CHURCH gathering since he is the intended guest of honor.

We find that the things going on in this church make him say some interesting and terrifying things about this church. He says something that stands out to me. He says, “They are all fully clothed yet they are naked.”

Adam and Eve were both naked in the Garden of Eden before, the fall of man. After they ate the forbidden fruit, they became aware of their nakedness and sewed fig leaves to make aprons to cover their nakedness. Then they hid when they heard Yahuah’s VOICE walking in the garden.

Can you picture this? Adam and the woman tried to create their righteousness by covering their nakedness with leaves that they sewed together, made from the vegetation from the ground, to hide their shame from Yahuah.

As Yahuah's VOICE is heard by Adam, they both hid and Yahuah confronted them both. They said they heard his VOICE and they hid because they were “naked.”

Yahshua, says about the Laodiceans'

Church, that they are clothed but do not know they are “naked.” The truth is that this church has come to the place where they believe that they have successfully covered their shame with their actions and resources to the point that they believe their works of righteousness are pleasing to Yahuah. They are so over the top involved in believing they are pleasing to Yahuah that they do not even feel the shame of their manmade coverings. They have blinded themselves by becoming neutral in a safe place with religious wealth and dirty rags of their righteousness to the point where

Christ is not even present. They have no idea that he is outside knocking and speaking his voice. Adam and Eve were in the safest place we could imagine and they walked and talked with Yahuah, yet they hid in shame when they heard his VOICE. This church has its fig leaves of wealth and they are clothed in self-righteousness they believe they have made themselves safe and they believe they still have Yahuah's ways and they need nothing. However, they cannot even hear his VOICE as he knocks on the door.

Genesis 3:7 And the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves aprons.

Genesis 3:8 And they heard the voice of the LORD God walking in the garden in the cool of the day: and Adam and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God amongst the trees of the garden.

Genesis 3:9 And the LORD God called unto Adam, and said unto him, Where art thou?

Genesis 3:10 And he said, I heard thy voice in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself.

Genesis 3:11 And he said, Who told thee that thou wast naked? Hast thou eaten of the tree, whereof I commanded thee that thou shouldest not eat?

Now, note how Yahshua speaks with the church of Laodiceans. He reminds them of the beginning of the Creation of God. You know that Adam and Eve were also created in the beginning on the Sixth Day, right? He draws our attention to this about “CREATION” before he confronts the church.

Revelation 3:14 And unto the angel of the church of the Laodiceans write; These things saith the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of God;

Revelation 3:15 I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot.

Revelation 3:16 So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth.

Revelation 3:17 Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked:

Revelation 3:18 I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see.

Revelation 3:19 As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent.

Revelation 3:20 Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

Revelation 3:21 To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne.

Revelation 3:22 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

We should all be careful not to let arrogance fill our minds with thinking that we are clothed nor made righteous by our good deeds and do not need him to correct our paths. This includes the church's leadership. Why do I say that?

In nearly every place in scripture where the word "Pastor" is mentioned, God is reprimanding them for misleading the people. Yahshua did not say he would come into the church; he said he would come in to “him” or come into the one who would hear his voice. The majority of this church loves the show and the charade and doesn’t need anything else. They go there to get filled and they are full. There may only be one person inside that hears his voice as he knocks.

Do you hear his voice? Are you clothed in your godly ways? Adam and Eve were naked and hid and clothed themselves. The last church mentioned in scripture is fully clothed and they are boldly showing what they are blessed with and Christ calls them POOR BLIND MISERABLE AND NAKED. This is not some cult group church; this is one of the seven churches of Revelation that have the intention of representing the one true Christ. As we can see, that point is specifically called out and addressed by Christ in this part of the Book of Revelation.

Yahuah made Adam and Eve coats of animal skin to cover their nakedness. Are you covered by his righteousness or are you still trying to cover your own with your understanding and your resources, your works, or your good deeds?

Understand this; your good deeds could never match the sacrifice that Christ made for you. If you were to ever try and present your good as a method of getting into Heaven, your good would always come up short and your presentation would be an insult to the sacrifice Christ made to clean you the right way.

Gal_2:16 Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.

Titus 3:5 Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost;

Romans 3:10 As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one:

Romans 3:11 There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God.

Romans 3:12 They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

Romans 3:13 Their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; the poison of asps is under their lips:

Romans 3:14 Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness:

Romans 3:15 Their feet are swift to shed blood:

Romans 3:16 Destruction and misery are in their ways:

Romans 3:17 And the way of peace have they not known:

Romans 3:18 There is no fear of God before their eyes.

Adam and the woman heard his voice walking in the Garden...

Note: I often refer to Eve as “the woman” at times to relay context, because she was not named by Adam with the name “Eve” until after they were driven out of Eden. In Eden, he called her “Woman.” This is important concerning Biblical Marriage. (Read Biblical Marriage by Michael W. Brault.)

Do you hear his VOICE in your religious safe place?

Just before Adam and the woman made fig leaves of aprons, the woman was listening to the words of the Serpent as he spoke about the Word of Yahuah.

Please understand this; the Serpent was there in Eden in what we would all assume, would be the safest place on the Earth. Yet she was influenced to disobey Yahuah's spoken Words that were said to Adam, in that place.

If we push ahead to the story about Cain and Abel, we can see that Cain slew Abel while both young men were taking action to please, Yahuah.

Wait, what?

Hear me on this. We know that both Cain and Able set out to make sacrifices to Yahuah.

If you wish to relate, you could say, they were both in church and both had a target audience with their intended actions and resources and FAITH.

Understand this point, Cain's sacrifice could never be accepted by Yahuah. If you do not listen to what Yahuah said as he spoke to Adam, you will be like Cain with your own life and you will be just like the church of Laodiceans.

Abel sacrificed using his labor and his flocks. Cain sacrificed using his labor tilling the ground. Do you know what made the difference? Some Pastors will say that Abel made a sacrifice that pictures or prophecies of Christ and his blood sacrifice dying on the cross. While there may be some element of truth to that comparison, it is not the reason Yahuah rejected Cain's sacrifice. Yahuah rejected Cain's sacrifice because it came from the GROUND. Yahuah cursed the ground and everything that came from it in Genesis 3:17.

Genesis 3:17 And unto Adam he said, Because thou hast hearkened unto the voice of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree, of which I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it: cursed is the ground for thy sake; in sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life;

We are fools when we think Yahuah does not mean what he says when he says it.

Churches gather offering Yahuah songs, praises, and worship when instead they,... we..., should be keeping his commandments to include the Sabbath and observing his feasts and obeying and delighting in his laws while sharing the Good News, The Gospel, with the lost world so that others will hear his VOICE and follow him.

The last thing any Pastor wants to "hear" is that he got it wrong. Cain sacrificed to Yahuah the very thing that Yahuah cursed.

Genesis 4:6 "And the LORD said unto Cain, Why art thou wroth? and why is thy countenance fallen?"

Yahuah questioned Cain. “Why are you mad?” Yahuah might say to you, or too “Pastors, why are you mad?” If you listened to me you would have done well. Instead, sin is lying at your "DOOR."

Genesis 4:7 If thou doest well, shalt thou not be accepted? and if thou doest not well, sin lieth at the door. And unto thee shall be his desire, and thou shalt rule over him.

Here in the beginning Cain was attempting to please Yahuah with his version of fig leaves. Is Yahshua at your church door or is there the sin of your righteousness blocking him from coming in?

It is time in these last days, for the Church, the real church, to heed the warnings of Christ and open the door and let Yahshua in, and for the church leadership to repent from all of the show that has nothing to do with the actual commission that Christ gave to the Apostles, in Acts Chapter 1:8-9.

Act 1:8 But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

Act 1:9 And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight.

Chapter Six

“God knows my heart.”

“Twas the night before Church and you are into the charade, you drank the cool-aid of Babylon’s parade.”

When you become a Christian for real, you enter the arena of spiritual warfare in ways that you would never imagine. If you haven't experienced this, I would suggest that you have not yet become a real Christian.

Ephesians 6:12 For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

With all humility in these last days, you must understand that you and I have been fooled by religion. Yes, we have been fooled for a very long time. We let religion in and we don't know why we say words like, "Amen" and what it means when we talk about "blessings." These words have become the "god words" that we say to each other in certain circles to let our friends and family know that we are in the club. I've said, "Amen" a few times already in this book and the religious agree with a warm fuzzy feeling from the word because they think I am saying something that identifies with god. The word “Amen” simply means, “So be it” or “let it happen as I have stated.” Yahuah is not impressed with our use of the religious “god words.” I am deliberately picking on these words because they are simple and easy to start saying when we are in the right company, you know, kind of like the church of the Laodiceans. It becomes far more complex and far more abrasive when it comes to protecting and upholding religious family traditions. They are very powerful and they own us with our actions and we want Yahuah to like them, just like Cain wanted Yahuah to like his tainted sacrifice. We have proudly celebrated the birth of Christ on December 25th and Easter in the springtime, and have done so for as long as I can remember. Every year we erect a tree in our homes and we sing songs about his birth. We all know it is not his real birthday yet we attend church services that perform plays about Mary and Joseph following a star and meeting three wise men. We share Xmas cards at Christmas time on social media. We share gifts and we quote the writings of Isaiah and Luke about his birth. There is a cool crisp feeling of Christmas in the air...

We love that feeling.....

Each Spring, we gather and carve up the Easter Ham and have Easter Egg hunts with the kids and it is ALL BLASPHEMY that makes us the church that Christ wants to spit out of his mouth.

We claim ignorance because we know nothing of the ancient world and why nor how these Babylonian practices took root in the alleged Christian church. We just do them. They are fun gatherings and we have pleasure in them. We do not question them and we think we are pleasing Yahuah by observing these pagan traditions that go against everything Yahuah warned us not to do. We say, “God knows my heart.”

Jer 10:3 For the customs of the people are vain: for one cutteth a tree out of the forest, the work of the hands of the workman, with the axe.

Jer 10:4 They deck it with silver and with gold; they fasten it with nails and with hammers, that it move not.

Now, imagine if you will, your birthday. Imagine that your family gathers and goes the extra mile to decorate and make it a really big deal. Now imagine that the day that they celebrate is not really the day you were born but instead it is the birthday of one of the imposters that you constantly warned them all to turn away from. Imagine that all the decorating and preparing were things you specifically warned them to avoid because all of it leads them away from the real you and your actual directions for them and their safety. You know it is not your real birthday, it is the birthday of someone you despise yet everyone assigns all of it to celebrate, you.

We have all said, “God knows my heart. He knows that I know it is not his real birthday, but that is okay because I am celebrating him.”

You may even be thinking that statement right now and feel that I am being a bit ridiculous about Christ's birth at the December Christmas celebration time.

The problem that we as believers face is that as we practice false religious holidays about Yahuah and embrace them instead of the real things he wants us to observe, is that we set ourselves up to be massively deceived when the antichrist is revealed. We may even find ourselves mocking what Yahuah said to do as we embrace our religious traditions and PRACTICE THEM shamelessly.

The word “Easter” is only mentioned once in the King James 1611 Bible.

Pay close attention to this one. If you are not careful, you might miss the enormous deception that comes from it being mentioned.

Act 12:1 Now about that time Herod the king stretched forth his hands to vex certain of the church.

Act 12:2 And he killed James the brother of John with the sword.

Act 12:3 And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also. (Then were the days of unleavened bread.)

Act 12:4 And when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers to keep him; intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people.

Act 12:5 Peter therefore was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him.

The Jewish KING, Herod, intended to turn Peter over to those that wanted to hurt Peter, after Easter!!! If Easter was a Christian representation of the resurrection of the Christ that Peter is representing, why is the Jewish King that hates Christians honoring the Easter celebration? In truth, Easter is the Pagan holiday name that the 15th-century translator used in place of the Jewish Passover Celebration called, "The Passover." Easter was the pagan god Astar or the god of fertility. Christianity has embraced the religious PAGAN fluff of the word Easter to the point that it is now used to represent the time of Christ's Resurrection in place of the Jewish Passover.

“Oh, come on Mike, what’s the big deal?”

Understand this point. Everything within the Law of Moses (The Torah) and everything written within the Prophets, is a rehearsal for the END TIMES believer as they endure the Great Tribulation seven-year period spoken of by Christ in the book of Mathew chapter 24.

If you are a fundamental dispensationalist you are probably not worried about the Great Tribulation because you believe you will be raptured out and taken to Heaven long before the real Tribulation begins.

With all humility, I hope you are right and that I have it all wrong about the time the rapture event takes place. After recent studies, I have come to some new conclusions that I was ignoring because I didn't believe I would be here for the Great Tribulation.

With a humble heart please consider the following:

John did not write The Book of Revelation to the lost world, he wrote all of it to the Angels of the seven churches in Asia. Every church mentioned is a church type that Christ recognized that existed then and also exists today throughout the world.

The Church that we should all desire to be humbly part of concerning the Revelation story is the Church of Philadelphia.

Seven times in the Book of Revelation, Christ said a very interesting statement. He said to each of the seven churches,

“He that has an ear to hear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.”

When Roman Emperor, Constantine, embraced Christianity, he allowed paganism to enter his version of the church. Under him as the Last Roman Emperor, Rome switched from a political power under the authority of an emperor to a religious power under the authority of the Pope. That religious power was built on many Ancient Babylonian pagan practices of the ancient Roman world that lead the Catholic Church down a long road of idolatry to the point where men and women bow to images and stones and relics made in the likeness of Mary, Jesus, God, the Saints, the angels, and the list goes on and on.

If you are caught up in this or are offended by what I said you should consider the following:

Exodus 20:4 Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth:

Exodus 20:5 Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I

the LORD thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me;

Exodus 20:6 And shewing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments.

We disobey Yahuah when we make and bow and serve any likeness of anything in Heaven above, on the Earth or in the Water...

With all of that said, it is my current belief that the seven real churches

mentioned in Revelation that are here now represented by you and I will go through the Great Tribulation. As we stated, the book of Revelation is written to the seven Churches that our attention is specifically called to by Christ himself in the first three chapters. The remaining chapters are all about the Great Tribulation and HIS REVEALING and then what takes place after he is revealed.

If this is all new to you please understand that today, many Bible-believing Christians believe that they will not be here for the Great Tribulation. They believe they will be Raptured or taken from the Earth before The Great Tribulation begins. They Believe that “Jesus” comes in the clouds and the dead in Christ Rise first and then they that are alive to witness it, will also float in the air and meet the dead in Christ and Christ himself in the clouds in the air. They believe that those left behind will endure the great tribulation that Yahshua spoke of in Mathew Chapter 24.

So let’s talk about The Rapture. It has become my belief that Dispensational Christianity has been given a false idea about their immunity from the Great Tribulation by adding "the Pre-Tribulation Rapture" ideology to scripture.

Proverbs 18:13 He that answereth a matter before he heareth it, it is folly and shame unto him.

Consider the following question.

Is a person living in the seven-year Great Tribulation "saved" by enduring until the end of the Great Tribulation?

I was taught to believe that to be "SAVED" a person that was "left behind" after the Rapture event had to have never heard the message of salvation about Christ and had to "endure to the end" of the seven-year tribulation period to be "saved."

As a student of scripture, I have come to understand that a person enduring to the end to be "saved" goes against everything we know about Christ and the consistent salvation given through his name. When we consider that a person could be saved by their endurance in the tribulation period then they do not need the saving grace of Yahuah as a standalone finished work.

Titus 3:5 Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost;

If that “endurance” belief is true, their endurance would then be added to the grace of Yahuah and then they can boast of their endurance to go with Christ's sacrifice to achieve Heaven. Doesn't this "endure to the end to be saved" interpretation, make a Tribulation Saints' endurance a "work of righteousness" that participates in aiding with Christ's perfect sacrifice? By this bizarre definition, they (Those left "behind") just need a good place to hide and some physical endurance for the hardships of the Great Tribulation with the hope that embracing the Gospel of the Kingdom as told by Christ, will save them.

“Mathew 24:13 But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved. “

As a humble believer, I know the Pre-Tribulation Rapture message and used to share the message of it myself without questioning any of it.

After some serious study, I challenged the dispensational viewpoint, thinking now, that it misinterprets Mathew 24’s “enduring to the end” statement. The truth is that it creates a false justification for understanding what happens to nonbelievers that have never heard the gospel during the dispensationalist view of the Grace period. The common belief is that nonbelievers and those that haven't heard the "Gospel of Grace" are left behind after the pre-tribulation rapture event and they must endure to the end of the seven-year tribulation period to be saved. It is believed that this puts them that are "left behind" under a completely different gospel called, "The Gospel of the Kingdom."

Please understand that the word "saved" in verse 13 of Mathew 24, "But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved" is not referring to salvation like being born again for "eternal life" spoken of in John chapter 3 where Yahshua told Nicodemus that he must be Born again. The word "saved" in Mathew 24:13 is being used the same way that the word "saved" is used in:

1 Timothy 2:15 "Notwithstanding she shall be saved in childbearing if they continue in faith and charity and holiness with sobriety."

This verse in, 1 Timothy, when taken out of context, might imply that a woman must give birth and then continue in faith, etc... to be SAVED (to go to heaven). If the verse meant that a woman must give birth to be "saved" then that would blaspheme the message of Christ and would make an alternate and earnable way to Heaven specifically for women. In both cases, the word 'saved' is not talking about being "saved by grace to go to heaven." Its translation is a common word that is used to mean "safe." Both times it is talking about a person living a continuous life here on Earth in a safe way when instructions are followed. It is not talking about them being saved for their eternal salvation.

Here is the Strong Concordance translation:

From a primary word σωζω sōzō (contraction for the obsolete σαος saos, "safe"); to save, that is, deliver or protect (literally or figuratively): - heal, preserve, save (self), do well, be (make) whole.

Understand this; if we reference the days of Noah in Mathews 24:37-42 prophesy we see that “one will be taken and another left.”

Mathew 24:37 But as the days of Noe were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

Mathew 24:38 For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, Mathew 24:39 And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

Mathew 24:40 Then shall two be in the field; the one shall be taken, and

Mathew 24:41 Two women shall be grinding at the mill; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

Mathew 24:42 Watch therefore: for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come.

Those that are mentioned as “taken,” are not “taken” until well after Christ spoke of enduring until the end within the story's chronological order of Mathew chapter 24. In other words, they that are taken are not taken until after enduring until the end of the great tribulation.

Now to a deeper point that I believe is paramount concerning a grand deception within the Christian mainstream movements. Again, I strongly note that the word “behind,” as in “Left Behind,” is NOT PART OF THE BIBLICAL STORY. When added it changes the meaning of being “left” to imply a further period will continue for the one that is left.

To simplify understanding, when Noah was here he made a boat (Ref: Genesis Chapter 6, The book of Jasher Chapter 4). Eight people were taken in the boat and many were left to drown. Not one of the eight that was safe or saved disappeared in thin air in the days of Noah at any time BEFORE THE FLOOD. In other words, they were not raptured away from the Earth's containment. Yahshua said, "just as in the days of Noah," (They entered the ark, Yahuah shut them in, and the windows of heaven opened, and floods immediately came)

Christ makes an enormous comparison here about this. Just as Mathew 24 verse 39 happened, first

“the flood came, and took them all away,” “THEN,” shall verse 40-41 happen,

“Then shall two be in the field; the one shall be taken (Just like Noah and his family), and the other left. (Just like those that immediately drown) Two women shall be grinding at the mill; the one shall be taken, and the other left. Then, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.”

The context proves that the tribulation time comes before the salvation given to Noah (the taken) in the safety of the Ark and instant judgment (The flood) happened (To end the life of every living being immediately). The only ones on the ark were the ones that had not corrupted themselves with the mixtures of man and beasts and species of the world. (Jasher Chapter 4) The only ones taken are those “sheep” that hear his VOICE and follow him. The only animals taken on the ark were the ones that had God's breath of life in them.

Jasher 4:17. And every man made unto himself a god, and they robbed and plundered every man his neighbor as well as his relative, and they corrupted the earth, and the earth was filled with violence.

Jasher 4:18. And their judges and rulers went to the daughters of men and took their wives by force from their husbands according to their choice, and the sons of men in those days took from the cattle of the earth, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the air, and taught the mixture of animals of one species with the other, in order therewith to provoke the Lord; and God saw the whole earth and it was corrupt, for all flesh had corrupted its ways upon earth, all men and all animals.

Jasher 4:19. And the Lord said, I will blot out man that I created from the face of the earth, yea from man to the birds of the air, together with cattle and beasts that are in the field for I repent that I made them.

Jasher 4:20. And all men who walked in the ways of the Lord, died in those days, before the Lord brought the evil upon man which he had declared, for this was from the Lord, that they should not see the evil which the Lord spoke of concerning the sons of men. Jasher 4:21. And Noah found grace in the sight of the Lord, and the Lord chose him and his children to raise up seed from them upon the face of the whole earth.

Noah endured to the end of the madness of his day and then was put in the safety of Yahuah's DESIGNED protection plan by following all the previous instructions that led to him building the ark. Noah rehearsed Yahuah's safety instructions by building the ark. He and his family remained SAFE on the water over the covered Earth just as the few remaining believers of Christ's Church must endure life on Earth trusting in God for their safety, food, and continuous life during the Great Tribulation. They must endure until they are taken at the end when Christ returns.

Being "taken" or raptured is the harvest where the wheat is separated from the chaff and the chaff is immediately burned.

Mat 3:12 Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner; but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

The scripture does not say that those that are “left” must endure to the end because he is declaring that the end he is speaking of (in Mathew 24 verse 3) is happening at the point where he returns. (Mathew 24 verse 42) “Watch therefore: for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come.” Those that are

Isa_29:5 Moreover the multitude of thy strangers shall be like small dust, and the multitude of the terrible ones shall be as chaff that passeth away: yea, it shall be at an instant suddenly.

“Mat 24:51 And shall cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”

Please understand this, when Christ returns, he is not coming to take the western culture church body; he is coming for his bride whom he went to prepare a place for, as promised. His bride is and always has been Israel that Yahshua came to when he came to his own and his own did not receive him. Those that are saved by grace that is not of Israeli bloodline are grafted into that bride. Those grafted in that are not of Israeli descent are grafted into Israel. They do not take the place of Israel, by becoming

Christ's new and separate bride. They are grafted into the same or original bride, Israel, and become part of her as one body or one kind. (Read Biblical Marriage by Michael W. Brault)

There is one portion of scripture that I think slips through the cracks of Christianity. The passage is also almost completely ignored by the pre-tribulation rapture crowd. I believe it is extremely relevant to those who believe they will be taken in the rapture before the great tribulation.

Let me ask you, who is the "Evil servant" that Christ is referring to in Mathew Chapter 24 verse 48?

Consider this; I believe the EVIL SERVANT of CHRIST is a person that BELIEVES that the Pre-Tribulation Rapture is a special coming of Christ, made for SAVED believers only, and that event only takes place in the air like a flash of lightning and with the sound of a trumpet. This BELIEVER is, however, alarmed that Christ has not returned in the time that he thinks is relevant.

How do we understand how Christ can have an evil servant? What makes a servant EVIL? How can we identify that servant among us?

First, let me tell you what I believe about the evil servant. The Evil Servant embraces things that go against what Yahuah said was “Good” in the Creation Story. They are believers in his coming however they may believe that the Adam and Eve story was just a fable. They may also believe that the Law of Moses is no longer valid or is made null by grace. They may also believe in evolution and they may believe we live in an ever-expanding universe where the Sun is the center and the Earth and the planets revolve around the sun. (The Copernicus Heliocentric model) They practice all the pagan holidays like Christmas and Easter and they have made Jesus Lord of them all. They believe heaven is somewhere out there beyond the solar system and that God is out of reach and out of touch.

Once you understand that Yahuah stated that Adam and Eve would “know Good and Evil” after they were driven out of Eden, then you need to also remember that Yahuah, after each created day, said what he did was “GOOD.” So the first mention in the same scripture of defining “evil” is going to be everything that contradicts what Yahuah said was GOOD after creating the elements of each day.

The Evil Servant knows the signs of the “END TIMES” and believes that Christ has delayed his coming during the tribulation period because the evil servant is expecting to be taken in the Pre-Tribulation Rapture.

The Evil servant is living in denial of the Great Tribulation even though he sees that the mark of the beast has been implemented and he can no longer buy or sell anything without having the mark.

The Evil Servant will not be rehearsed in KEEPING the Law of Moses and the Feasts will be alien to him and he will not keep the Sabbaths. He will not absorb the experiences of the prophets, and he will not know how to survive the Great Tribulation. He is used to practicing the antichrist's religious traditions like Christmas and Easter and Sunday church services. He is just like CAIN. He is there to make a sacrifice but he is going to use everything in his Christian toolbox that Yahuah said was VAIN. He will not look for manna from Heaven nor will he believe that he can take five loaves and two fish and feed five thousand. Instead of rehearsing and observing what Yahuah said to rehearse and do, he will need to steal food and he will kill his fellow servants to survive. All the while he will say, “God knows my heart.”

The Lawless one resides in his body's temple and the spirit of the antichrist has guided him away from keeping the Law of Moses, the Torah, and away from listening to the Prophets.

Mat_24:48 But and if that evil servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming;

Mat 24:49 And shall begin to smite his fellowservants, and to eat and drink with the drunken;

Mat 24:50 The lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of,

Mat 24:51 And shall cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

The following 16 sets of scriptures are used by many churches to support the end of the grace period's "rapture" event. With that said, I suggest you go through each verse and see what the actual context is about. Ask yourself, as I have, if any of them support the SPECIFIC idea of a Pre-Tribulation Rapture. Do any of them tell you that Grace ends when tribulation begins? Can the context of them supporting the rapture event and judgment instead be happening at the end?

After you study these verses you may find yourself asking, how does the church (Israel) survive the Great Tribulation?

The church must REPENT of all the show and the VAIN traditions of men and hear his VOICE and open the door and let Christ in and FEAST with him.

The Church must endure to the end by keeping and delighting in the Laws of Yahuah, The Torah, and also rehearse the Prophets, and observe Yahuah's Feasts, and Sabbaths so that they/we, will not be deceived by the Antichrists' Great Deception that Christ told us would come on to the whole world.

Understand the rehearsal. They, the Israelites, worked Six Days and rested on the Seventh or the Sabbath every single week. Have you ever wondered why they had to repeat this observation every single week for all time?

I have concluded that it is so that you do not forget the Creation story where Yahuah made the Heaven and Earth and everything created on each day. This rehearsal for Israel, the church, is very important because he described ALL OF THE CREATIONS in Genesis concerning the Earth as what you might imagine as the shape of a child's toy snow globe resting on a footstool. According to all scriptures' descriptions of the Earth, we are in an enclosure and Yahuah is above us and the Earth is his footstool. We are not in an ever-expanding universe revolving around the Sun. There are no planets. The Sun, Moon, and Stars were put in the enclosure (The firmament) on Day 4 of the creation story and they all revolve above the earth inside the hard firmament called Heaven. Before the 4th Day, each day had light and dark. The first three days were without the Sun's Light because the Sun's light did not shine until the Fourth Day when the Sun was made. The Evil Servant will believe this is all a fumbling fable because he cannot let go of the idea that the Earth as being part of a heliocentric universe. I firmly believe that the great deception includes the idea that we all evolved from monkeys and live in an ever-expanding universe and the Earth is just a small insignificant planet that revolves around the sun.

So what about the Dinosaurs and cavemen, etc...?

The simple answer is that the dinosaurs along with all the other extinct species, all died in the great flood because Yahuah did not make them. They were mixtures of species that were made to provoke Yahuah. (Jasher Chapter 4) Only the animals that had God's breath of life in them were the ones on the ark. Only the humans that God made that had his breath of life in them were on Noah's Ark. You need to understand this; the dinosaurs and Neanderthals were MIXED SPECIES that were made to provoke God.

Sometime after the Flood up to now, with all the different pagan practices that came from the time of the Tower of Babel, men have been mixing species and themselves with other species to provoke Yahuah in some way just as in the days before the flood. Men have used towers and rocket ships to try and get to heaven, provoking Yahuah. With that said, I have a terrifying question that I contemplate as I observe our world. Many have questioned THE SCRIPTURES as to how whites, blacks, Asians, etc..., could all come from Noah and his three sons and come from only one flesh or one kind back to Adam and Eve. I have heard many different arguments that just don't seem to give a good solid answer as to how Adam and Eve as one flesh or one kind produced all the different races that are in our world today. This is not meant to offend anyone so please look at this from a biblical perspective. I understand how uncomfortable this topic is but please remember we are talking about scripture and what it tells us about our world and its inhabitants from Adam till now, in this present day. Once you understand the answer to that terrifying question you will see that it doesn't matter what race anyone happens to be because Revelation clearly says that everyone that dwells on Earth that observes the Beast will wonder the same thing. With that said, what is it about the Beast of Revelation that causes men to wonder the following?

When the people behold the Beast in the book of Revelation they will wonder whose names were not written in the Book of Life from the foundation of the world.

Rev 17:8 The beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

Let me break this down so that you can see what I am trying to say. I believe that the Beast may be a man made up of a mixture of species that looks and acts like a very attractive supernatural man and that man will have some kind of counterfeit IMAGE that aids in him being LIKE THE MOST HIGH.

Isa 14:12 How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations!

Isa 14:13 For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north:

Isa 14:14 I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High.

The following is just my viewpoint as I attempt to understand why men would wonder whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world. I believe the author, John, is calling him a beast because he is observing this, “man-like-being” from a prophetic viewpoint. I believe that the Beast is a man that is mixed with other species. That would be consistent with the book of Jasher and the days of Noah. ADAM was made in the image of Yahuah so the beast will have his Image and man will notice that he does not match that image. That counterfeit image will shine because he transformed himself into an angel of light to be like the Image of Yahuah. Everyone that observes this Beast, in Revelation 17:8, will think the beast is the one true GOD. They will notice that they as humans are not made in the same image as the beast. I believe these SPECIFIC observers of the beast will think that they LOST THE IMAGE OF Yahuah because they observe that they do not bear the likeness of the IMAGE of the beast. They, at this point, may believe they were mixed with other species over time to the point that no RACE ON THE EARTH will have Yahuah's IMAGE the way ADAM did, because no race will be able to identify with the IMAGE OF THE BEAST. Because of all of this, they will FEAR and wonder from the beginning whose names were not written in the book of life. None of them that observe the beast will see their human likeness as comparable to the IMAGE of the beast. They will bow and worship the beast. In their eyes, this mixed species of a man will be magnificent and even glorious in his appearance and this beast will be the antichrist pretending to be the very image of Yahuah.

Our world's science community wants us to believe that we ALL evolved from monkeys. I would say that if anything, someone mixed men with monkeys and many other species which gave us the bizarre skeletons found within the Neanderthals, etc... We know that Adam was made in the image of Yahuah. Will you and I wonder if we have retained that image or are we a product of someone's experiment just as in the days of Noah before the flood?

Do you remember in Chapter 2 when I stated, "My sheep hear my voice and follow me...?" I said, "This phrase, said by Yahshua, should terrify all of us every time we are sure we are right about something scriptural."

Do you hear his voice and follow him or are you just playing church? I didn't ask you what color you are or what race you are, or what gender you are, etc... I asked you, do you hear his voice and follow him?

Concerning the Earth, its shape, etc..., the proofs of the science community requires our faith in their message, and most of it has been fabricated. Here is a website that offers some biblical proof to consider:

Check out testingtheglobe.com for more information on the creation of the Earth and this grand-scale deception.

Now as we continue, if you know the story of Israel, you know that they had limited food and resources after being delivered out of Egypt and they endured hardship for 40 years because of their disbelief and murmuring against Yahuah before going into the Promised Land.

Yahuah gave us the Torah and the Prophets and Christ's many examples as a rehearsal so that we would know how to survive the Great Tribulation.

If you know the struggles of Israel you know that for food, Yahuah rained manna from heaven so that they would have food to eat. Yahshua took five loaves and two fish and feed 5 thousand.

Yahshua said, "Come to me all you that are heavy with sadness and overburdened with this world and I will give you rest...”

I am sure that if you read this far, you have questions. It is time to ask the Father in Yahshua’s Name. ~ Amen

The Kingdom

Many of us were brought up learning what is called, “The Lord’s Prayer” We say the words and they become religious chants of words addressed to someone that we call “God, the Father.” They can seem meaningless to us because some of us have no idea what Yahshua is talking about in the prayer. We say, “The Our Father...” prayer because we think it is what Yahuah wants to hear. Why would he ask the church to pray about a kingdom that is to come? I mean, after all, the church many of us grew up in is not set up under a monarchy, right? So let’s take a look at “The Lord’s Prayer.”

Mat 6:9 After this manner, therefore, pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name.

Mat 6:10 Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

Mat 6:11 Give us this day our daily bread.

Mat 6:12 And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

Mat 6:13 And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

When I was growing up as a Catholic, I vaguely remember that we had prayer beads with a little cross and a tiny Jesus statue nailed to it that we would hold and we would be required to repeat the Lord's Prayer and other prayers, one prayer for each bead or something like that. As a Born Again believer, I was taught that it was the model prayer that taught us how to pray. Now I believe that it is so much more than just a simple lesson in speaking with Yahuah. First, we must understand that we are being asked to call on Yahuah as "Our Father." We are directed by his ONLY begotten Son to pray or talk to him acknowledging that he is IN HEAVEN right above us. We addressed him as our Father and HOLY is his NAME. As we acknowledge this he then draws our attention to what we should be concerned with. Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done on Earth as it is in Heaven. Every time we pray this prayer we are asking him to bring HIS KINGDOM because we are telling him that we recognize that HIS KINGDOM is not currently here. When we pray this prayer as instructed we are pleading for his RETURN AND Reign on Earth as he (The Father) Reigns in Heaven. Now, understand this, when we take a look at the Acts of the Apostles after the crucifixion and after the resurrection and after they, the eleven, met with the risen Christ they ask him a very specific question:

Acts 1:6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel?

What I want you to notice for now is that in Acts Chapter 1 verse 6 the question asked is the one major concern on the minds of the Apostles after his resurrection and after spending 40 days with Yahshua. They recognize that even after everything Yahshua went through and the proof he showed them, Israel was still not restored to the Kingdom. The answer Yahshua gives them does not answer the question with any satisfaction for Israel. Instead, he defers the answer and commissions them to be witnesses of HIM to the uttermost parts of the Earth. Acts 1:7 is a very important verse because Yahshua is telling the Apostles that Yahuah is not done dealing with the wickedness of Israel concerning the Kingdom and they, the Apostles, are not going to know the times or the seasons of the Israeli Kingdom restoration.

Act 1:7 And he said unto them, It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power.

Act 1:8 But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

Act 1:9 And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight.

So why did Yahshua defer the question? To answer that we need to understand what took place when Christ came to Jerusalem riding on a donkey a week before the Passover and his crucifixion. At one point, he went into the temple and smashed the money changers, and broke the merchandise exchange.

Luk 19:45 And he went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold therein, and them that bought;

Luk 19:46 Saying unto them, It is written, My house is the house of prayer: but ye have made it a den of thieves.

Luk 19:47 And he taught daily in the temple. But the chief priests and the scribes and the chief of the people sought to destroy him,

Luk 19:48 And could not find what they might do: for all the people were very attentive to hear him.

He constantly preached to the children of Israel while the Pharisees and Sadducees continually tried to catch him or snare him into breaking the Torah, the Law of Moses. Here is just one example:

Mat 12:1 At that time Jesus went on the sabbath day through the corn; and his disciples were an hungred, and began to pluck the ears of corn, and to eat.

Mat 12:2 But when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto him, Behold, thy disciples do that which is not lawful to do upon the sabbath day.

Mat 12:3 But he said unto them, Have ye not read what David did, when he was an hungred, and they that were with him;

Mat 12:4 How he entered into the house of God, and did eat the shewbread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them which were with him, but only for the priests?

Mat 12:5 Or have ye not read in the law, how that on the sabbath days the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are blameless?

Mat 12:6 But I say unto you, That in this place is one greater than the temple.

Mat 12:7 But if ye had known what this meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltless.

Mat 12:8 For the Son of man is Lord even of the sabbath day.

He did multiple miracles and showed mercy and kindness.

Mat 12:9 And when he was departed thence, he went into their synagogue:

Mat 12:10 And, behold, there was a man which had his hand withered. And they asked him, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath days? that they might accuse him.

Mat 12:11 And he said unto them, What man shall there be among you, that shall have one sheep, and if it fall into a pit on the sabbath day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out?

Mat 12:12 How much then is a man better than a sheep? Wherefore it is lawful to do well on the sabbath days.

Mat 12:13 Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it forth; and it was restored whole, like as the other.

Mat 12:14 Then the Pharisees went out, and held a council against him, how they might destroy him.

Understand this; he cast out devils and the rulers of the Jews declared that he cast them out in the name of the devil.

After they accused him of doing everything in the name of the devil he declared that they blasphemed the Holy Ghost.

Mat 12:22 Then was brought unto him one possessed with a devil, blind, and dumb: and he healed him, insomuch that the blind and dumb both spake and saw.

Mat 12:23 And all the people were amazed, and said, Is not this the son of David?

Mat 12:24 But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, This fellow doth not cast out devils, but by Beelzebub the prince of the devils.

Mat 12:25 And Jesus knew their thoughts, and said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand:

Mat 12:26 And if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself;

how shall then his kingdom stand?

Mat 12:27 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your children cast them out? therefore they shall be your judges.

Mat 12:28 But if I cast out devils by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God is come unto you.

Mat 12:29 Or else how can one enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house.

Mat 12:30 He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad.

Mat 12:31 Wherefore I say unto you, All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men.

Mat 12:32 And whosoever speaketh a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come.

Please understand this point, after they accused him of healing and casting out Devils in the name of Devils, Yahshua declared that they, the Israeli Pharisees, blasphemed the Holy Ghost. That is when Yahshua began to speak in parables to the Children of Israel.

He came to his own and his own did not receive him.

Mathew 23:13 But woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in.

They, Israel that still follow the Pharisee's teachings, to this day, of both those scattered abroad and those occupying the land of Israel now, have many that still do not believe that the same Yahshua that their forefathers tried and condemned to death two thousand years ago is the risen Christ that fulfills and restores the Kingdom to Israel.

Those of the true Israel bloodline that are scattered abroad or that occupy the land in Israel now do embrace Yahshua as the Christ and the fulfillment of the Messiah is Born Again just as Yahshua told Nicodemus in John Chapter 3.

John 3:1 There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews:

John 3:2 The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him.

John 3:3 Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

John 3:4 Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?

John 3:5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

John 3:6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

John 3:7 Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again.

John 3:8 The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

John 3:9 Nicodemus answered and said unto him, How can these things be?

John 3:10 Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things?

John 3:11 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and ye receive not our witness.

John 3:12 If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you of heavenly things?

John 3:13 And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven.

John 3:14 And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up:

John 3:15 That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life.

John 3:16 For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

John 3:17 For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.

As believers we believe that we were born of the water by our mothers giving birth to us and then we come to know of the Christ and like a humble child, we believe in Him and are immediately born of the Spirit. Yahshua even re-clarifies being born again with Nicodemus. He says, "That which is born of the flesh is flesh and that which is born of Spirit is spirit."

The good news of the Kingdom is that you can also be born again. Don't be an old man that thinks he knows everything. That is exactly what Nicodemus' lesson was about. Humble yourself and come to the Father like a child and believe on the Son asking him to forgive you and save you and you will be born of the Spirit and will share in the promise of eternal life.

Once you acknowledge that you are born again by believing on the Son, tell someone about it so they can also have the same opportunity to be saved!

Remember this, the thief on the cross next to Yahshua did not have the time nor the opportunity to do any good deeds nor keep the law or observe any feasts or Sabbaths. He simply said to Yahshua, “Remember me when you come into your KINGDOM.” Yahshua responded to him, “TODAY you will be with me in Paradise.”

Luk 23:39 And one of the malefactors which were hanged railed on him, saying, If thou be Christ, save thyself and us.

Luk 23:40 But the other answering rebuked him, saying, Dost not thou fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation?

Luk 23:41 And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiss.

Luk 23:42 And he said unto Jesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom.

Luk 23:43 And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in paradise.

Yahuah may not give you the same chance at your dying moment, like the thief on the cross, for you to call on Christ to remember you. If you have never done it, cry out to him now asking him to remember you too and I will also rejoice with the angels of Heaven and will see you there. Amen

Chapter Eight

The Great Tribulation

The Church of Philadelphia in Revelation Chapter 2 is probably the model church gathering that the believer should strive to identify with.

Rev 3:7 And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write; These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth;

Rev 3:8 I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name.

Rev 3:9 Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.

Rev 3:10 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth.

Rev 3:11 Behold, I come quickly: hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown.

Rev 3:12 Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my new name.

Rev 3:13 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

If we focus on Revelation 3:8 above, we see that Yahshua states that the END TIMES believer has kept his WORD and has not denied his NAME.

Psa 119:11 Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee.

Psa 119:12 Blessed art thou, O LORD: teach me thy statutes.

Psa 119:13 With my lips have I declared all the judgments of thy mouth.

Psa 119:14 I have rejoiced in the way of thy testimonies, as much as in all riches.

Psa 119:15 I will meditate in thy precepts, and have respect unto thy ways.

Psa 119:16 I will delight myself in thy statutes: I will not forget thy word.

What we are starting to see is a path to safety for the saved believer that lives during the Great Tribulation and a path to destruction for those that refuse to Trust Yahuah in his Word. In Revelation 17 Verse 8 we know that something is going to happen that completely dumbfounds those who have not kept his Word. As stated earlier, they will behold the beast and shall “wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world. “ Understand this, only believers would know about the book of life, to begin with. This statement is not made to a random crowd; it is made to the church. Some believers are deceived by paganism or religious practices that are not part of Yahuah or his Word. They will be caught off guard and will be fooled into something that will make them follow the antichrist.

Can a believer be fooled by the antichrist?

Adam and the woman in Eden walked and talked with Yahuah and she was still fooled by the Serpent.

Yahuah has given ample instruction to the believer on trusting him in his Word and keeping his Name. There are multiple examples of every imaginable situation of good and evil throughout scripture so that the end time's believer has not only rehearsed the ways of Yahuah but also knows how to respond to the crisis that is sure to come every day.

Yahuah has overwhelmingly shown us his deliverance throughout his Word for his sheep that hear his voice. He has given us instruction and rehearsal in the Torah and the Prophets so that when the time comes when men question whose names were written in the Book of Life, the ones that hear his voice and followed him, and kept his Word, and have not denied his name will be safe from the hardships and the massive deceptions of the antichrist.

Rev 17:8 The beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

I started this chapter with the Church of Philadelphia because the message to the church shows the progression of all church history showing that the church is the Jew or Israel "...he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David...", and that there is a counterfeit or pretend Jews that we should be concerned with. The progression is told to the angel of the church and goes right up to the coming of the Kingdom or New Jerusalem coming down out of heaven.

What does this all mean?

The Christian world is anticipating that the RELIGIOUS Israeli leadership at some point will begin the rebuilding of Solomon's Temple in Jerusalem. The common understanding is that the antichrist will occupy the NEW temple and will at some point defile it revealing himself as the false Christ. The common understanding among fundamental believers is that Israel became a nation in 1948 and the generation of that event would see the Great Tribulation and the Revealing of the antichrist and the Revelation of the True Christ. Most have calculated that if a child was born in 1948 they would be in their 70s now in 2021. A generation in scripture is 70 years plus. This is why many believe the events of our day are of the End Times.

Stop! Let's reevaluate the situation.

Did Israel fulfill "the prophecy" in 1948 by taking and occupying the Holy land? We just learned from the church of Philadelphia that there will be a false Jew or the Synagogue of Satan, right? We know that Israel of our day wants to build the temple but is that un-built Temple the Temple that Yahuah will dwell in? Didn't the Pharisees of Israel blaspheme the Holy Ghost and reject Christ? Consider what Yahshua said to the church at Smyrna.

Rev 2:8 And unto the angel of the church in Smyrna write; These things saith the first and the last, which was dead, and is alive;

Rev 2:9 I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan.

I find it interesting that twice Yahshua has noted with the CHURCHES that false Jews occupy the synagogue.

Matthew 23:37-39

“Jerusalem, Jerusalem, who kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to her! How often I wanted to gather your children together, the way a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, and you were unwilling. Behold, your house is being left to you desolate! For I say to you, from now on you will not see Me until you say, ‘Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!’”

Consider this... The Pharisee Israelis of today that have rejected the risen Christ of two thousand years ago are the ones that want to rebuild the Temple. Let me rephrase that point. Some say they are Jews and are not but are the Synagogue of Satan and they are planning on the rebuild of the Temple. Is Yahuah going to be honored with that Temple? Is Yahshua going to be seated in that Temple to fulfill the scriptures?

NO! That temple will be in the city that has become a harlot, Jerusalem.

Yahuah is going to gather the Pharisees sect of the children of Israel that have lost their heritage by rejecting the true Christ and their blood of them is going to be up to a horse's bridle.

Rev 14:20 And the winepress was trodden without the city, and blood came out of the winepress, even unto the horse bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

The Great Tribulation is where he is going to draw the scattered that rejected the risen Christ to the harlot city and wipe them all out.

Where is the Temple of Yahuah? You and I are the Temple that is not made with hands that Yahuah dwells in.

1Co 6:19 What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own?

Paul said the Spirit of the Antichrist was already present in his day. Does the antichrist dwell in your temple?

How would you know? Paul said of him, “Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God.”

Is he (The antichrist) in you as Paul said? Do you know his name?

2Th 2:1 Now we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together unto him,

2Th 2:2 That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand.

2Th 2:3 Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition;

2Th 2:5 Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things?

2Th 2:6 And now ye know what withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time.

2Th 2:12 That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

Yahuah said he will not dwell in the physical Temple made with hands.

Acts 7:48 Howbeit the most High dwelleth not in temples made with hands; as saith the prophet,

Paul told us that the Antichrist already dwells in Yahuah's temple. He mocks Yahuah and he has a blasphemous name.

The Mark of the Beast

Once you see it, you cannot UNSEE IT!

Rev 13:18 "Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six."

Right after John tells us about the beast and the mark that will be forced on everyone, he makes an interesting statement. He draws our attention

by saying, "HERE IS WISDOM"

Then he says, "Understand this when you count the number of the beast, it is the number of a man." The mark, the name, and the number are three different explanations describing the NAME of the beast and they are all the same.

The book of Revelation was written by JOHN in Greek not English. HERE IS WISDOM the man that goes by the name that sounds like (WHEN YOU COUNT or SAY) 666 is the one that will represent Christ to the world but he will be the antichrist.

But what does 666 sound like when spoken in ancient GREEK and why are we told to note this fact as wisdom? We will come back to this.

Mark 13:6 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.

Mathew 24:24 For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect.

Understand this, John, the author's name, is NOT JOHN. There was no letter "J" until the fifteenth century. That was about 1500 years after the book of Revelation was written in Greek and translated into the English King James 1611 Bible to the point where we have John instead of "ion." So the name John was not spelled with a, "J" it was spelled with an, "I," and was pronounced ion. It kind of sounds like "yawn"

We know that at the time of Paul's writings, it was declared that the antichrist was already in the world deceiving the whole world.

Many of you, like me, believe the Word of Yahuah is Holy and true. Rightly so! However, we tend to overlook some things and tend to lean to one side of understanding.

What if I told you that the Devil speaks in scripture? The Serpent was there in scripture right at the beginning and spoke to the woman. We know that he took Yahshua into the desert to tempt him and had a conversation tempting him to turn stone into bread.

You are fine with that because Yahuah allowed the devil to speak IN SCRIPTURE so that you would know and share the story.

With all of that said, Let's reexamine the MARK, NAME, OR NUMBER that dwells in the temple that is not made with the hands of man, you. He declares himself GOD but he denies that you need to follow God's laws. Remember he is a counter fit or antichrist that occupies the temple.

What does 666 sound like in ANCIENT Greek? CHEEZS

The Greek letters “CHI” “Xi” “Stigma” were used for 666 by John to describe the number that sounds like the beast's name.

chi xi stigma

khee xee stig'-ma

*sounds like "CHEE Z S" in ancient Greek.
Also sounds like "HEE Z S" in some areas of ancient Greek.*

666 - six hundred threescore and six. ~ From Strong's Concordance.

OVER AND OVER AGAIN in scripture, Yahuah repeats that they deny his name and do not know his name, and speak blasphemies in his name. What can be more blasphemous than using the "son of Zeus" as his name when referring to the "Son of Yahuah?" Understand that Yahuah's wrath is poured out against the world IN REVELATION because all day long he sits with extended arms hoping for our repentance to turn away from religion and sin and come to him on his terms calling on his true name.

We have believed all our lives that the name “Jesus” was the correct interpretation into English when all the while we should be calling him “Joshua” just as we foolishly believed the word “Easter” was about the Jewish Passover and the resurrection of the Christ.

Here, the Strong Concordance tells us that the Greek translated name “Jesus” was supposed to be the Hebrew name, “Joshua.” (Yahshua)

Ἰησοῦς

Of Hebrew origin [H3091]; Jesus (that is, Jehoshua), the name of our Lord, and two (three) other Israelites: - Jesus.

Here is the ENGLISH name Joshua translated from Hebrew.

יְהוֹשֻׁעַ יְהוֹשֻׁעַ

y^ehōshûa' y^ehōshûa'

yeh-ho-shoo'-ah, yeh-ho-shoo'-ah

From H3068 and H3467; Jehovah-saved; Jehoshua (that is, Joshua), the Jewish leader: - Jehoshua, Jehoshuah, Joshua. Compare H1954, H3442.

From this we can see that the English interpretation of Christ's sacred name should have been Joshua (Yahshua) in the King James Version.

As believers, we always imagine that the revealing of the antichrist is going to be a grandeur event that happens in the rebuilt temple of Solomon in Jerusalem. What if his true revealing to believers is simply that he uses the name “Jesus” (son of Zeus) in their temple instead of Yahshua in the believers’ hearts and bodies or the temple of Yahuah? Is Jesus in our hearts or is Yahshua in our hearts? I wonder if the thing that John was told by the “voice” not to write about in Revelation 10:4 was that the pagan English interpreters of the 15th century that used “Easter” to express “the Passover” would also use the “son of Zeus” in place of the “Son of Yahuah” to test the hearts of men in the end times.

Rev 10:4 And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.

Understand this, Satan, right from the beginning, has been given enormous license to take the Word of Yahuah and manipulate it to deceive men that refuse to follow the literal Word of Yahuah. Perhaps this is part of how he is revealed just as stated below.

Th 2:3 Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition;

2Th 2:4 Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God.

2Th 2:5 Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things?

2Th 2:6 And now ye know what withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time.

the way.

2Th 2:8 And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming:

2Th 2:10 And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

When we go back in these scriptures and look at the beast (antichrist) as he is described dwelling in God's TEMPLE, we see his control and the name that is on his forehead. We also see that the name JESUS sounds like, CHEEZS or 666 counted or said in ancient Greek from Revelation. Remember that the name JESUS was represented by a GREEK understanding of the Son of GOD by its 15th-century English interpreter(s). The interpreter from Greek to English also removed Jehovah or “Yahuah” and added in its place the words “Lord or God.”

From H1961; (the) self Existent or eternal; Jehovah, Jewish national name of God: - Jehovah, the Lord. Compare H3050, H3069.

And the interpreters used the word “God” in place of “eloheem”

אֱלֹהִים

Plural of H433; gods in the ordinary sense; but specifically used (in the plural thus, especially with the article) of the supreme God; occasionally applied by way of deference to magistrates; and sometimes as a superlative: - angels, X exceeding, God (gods) (-dess, -ly), X (very) great, judges, X mighty.

The interpreters did this throughout scripture and also used the ancient GREEK son of Zeus, CHEEZS (APOLLO the Greek son of god, Zeus), or JESUS which would of course be a blasphemous name.

Who is the real Son of Yahuah? YAHSHUA or in English pronounced JOSHUA. Yes, Joshua is his Holy and sacred Name in English. God allowed the devil to speak in scripture and translate and transform the name to a name that is blasphemy or 666 to deceive the whole world just like he deceived the woman in Eden.

I believe that the Gospel of the Kingdom (GOOD NEWS OF THE KINGDOM) that will be preached in the entire world is meant to ALSO restore the true and sacred name of the Son of Yahuah. This restoration of Yahshua must be in our temple, in our heads, in our hearts, and in our minds, and in everything we do with our hands, in the name of Yahshua.

Now that you know this, you are probably pondering your salvation and wondering about the millions that came before you that ask everything in the name of Jesus. What I would say is that Yahuah is merciful and knows your heart. He knows that you were calling on him with your intentions. But now he has set the record straight with you about his name and now you will take action to acknowledge or deny his true name. We were all using the wrong name out of ignorance. It is time to make that right by thanking him for your salvation in the name of Yahshua. Ask him to fill your heart and mind and help you to recognize that religion will continue to use the pagan name of Jesus and so will the Antichrist. That name will be in their temple. You should read that again. It is up to you to make things right now that you know the name that has the real power of Yahuah. In the end times, you have enormous power in the name of Yahshua! It is time to use it the way he intended!

Here is something to consider:

None of the very powerful worship songs that we all love, use his true name, Yahshua. You should read that again.

Soon the hour of temptation will come on the whole world. Believers, will strongly be tempted to embrace the antichrist?

Many of you will say, "I love Jesus, I worship Jesus, I pray in Jesus' name, so, I don't understand."

Some of you are already tempted to deny his true name even after reading all of this.

Revelation 3:8 I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name.

Many believe the antichrist is revealed to the world within the prophecy of the rebuilt temple by him desecrating the altar with a tainted sacrifice after rising to power in Israel.

Dan 11:31 And arms shall stand on his part, and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily sacrifice, and they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate.

Christ gave the example that his body was the temple that was destroyed and rebuilt in 3 days, and if you are a believer, you agree. You have read it a thousand times.

John 2:19 Yahshua answered and said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.

Friends, YOU ARE THE NEW TEMPLE!

1Co 6:19 What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own?

1Co 6:20 For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

Has your temple been desecrated? To be blunt, have you ever broken the Law of Moses by feeding on swine, pork, pig, bacon, etc...? If your answer is yes then your temple is defiled.

Deu 14:8 And the swine, because it divideth the hoof, yet cheweth not the cud, it is unclean unto you: ye shall not eat of their flesh, nor touch their dead carcase.

You may respond that Christ nullified the Law. Friends if the law was nullified then how would the pig sacrifice be defilement in the Prophesied future Jewish temple? Either the law is fully in play or it is not. If not then the altar cannot be defiled.

The antichrist is the lawless one. What makes him lawless? He promotes that the Law of Moses was nullified. Our sin is identified by the Law.

1Jn 3:4 Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law.

Rom 6:1 What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?

Rom 6:2 God forbid. How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer therein?

Shall we continue breaking the law so that grace may abound? GOD Forbids breaking the law!

Where does the antichrist reside? Paul said he resides in God's Temple and he shows himself as God.

revealed, the son of perdition;

2Th 2:4 Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God.

As we said earlier, the revealed antichrist will have a blasphemous name.

Rev 9:11 And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon.

Who is the Greek son of Zeus? Apollo was "the son of god," Zeus, or JESUS.

Six threescore and six = 666 = Chi xi stigma (in Greek) when calculated or spoken in Greek chi xi stigma is pronounced "cheezs" in some parts of ancient Greek it is pronounced "heezs"

Jesus was not even spelled in English bibles with a "J" until the 18 hundreds. The name was originally translated as "iesus" from the name Yahshua.

It was suggested to me that Arabic letters for "Allah" also resemble the Greek number "Chi xi stigma."

Have you evicted the antichrist from your temple?

Does your temple bear the name of the antichrist or the true name of the Son of Elohim, Yahshua?

We have talked about the mark of the beast and that mark or NAME is already in the hearts of many. Now let's talk about what we should truly embrace.

The mark of Yahuah is found on the forehead and the hand of the obedient in Deut Chapter 6. Oh and Yahshua also reminded us that this is the greatest commandment. Yahuah tells us when we do this it becomes embedded in our hand and between our eyes or our forehead.

Deu 6:5 And thou shalt love the LORD thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might.

Deu 6:6 And these words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart:

Deu 6:7 And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up.

Deu 6:8 And thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thine hand, and they shall be as frontlets between thine eyes.

The antichrist will present a fake mark(s) to the whole world. He has had over 2000 years to come up with all kinds of distractions to keep you buying and selling false TRUTHS to identify with like bar codes and monstrous soft drinks. But you will not be able to buy or sell anything (LIES) without his mark, or to be clear, without his NAME.

Some might say, "I'm not worried, I'm saved." Friend, you may be saved but are you safe, and ready to endure to the end of the Great Tribulation?

Healing Power In His Name

We pray for healing in our lives or that of a friend or family member and then turn to medicines. ~ true story

Every time we pray, we beg Jesus to do what Yahshua already said he would do if we would just ask him in his true and sacred name.

Again, I do the same things. A lifetime of using the pagan name Jesus is in there in my temple and it needs to get washed out by rehearsal with the sacred name of Yahshua.

You and I have been trained by church leadership to believe that Christ no longer does miracles the same way in our own lives as he did 2000 years ago. We have been seduced by faithless teachers that have searched the scriptures for reasons to deny healing power to the body of Christ because they do not have the faith required, and because they have been themselves, calling on the wrong name and gathering and worshipping on the wrong day.

Wait, WHAT?

When did the church gather in scripture?

The claim in almost all Catholic, Protestant, and Independent churches is that the first church gathered on the FIRST DAY of the week, but is that the true day?

Acts 20:7 is the verse used to claim that the church gathers on the first day of the week. This claim started with the Catholic Church and set the tradition of Sunday worship for the Catholic Church and Sunday worship has trickled into Protestantism and everything else to the point where Sunday worship has taken the place of the Jewish Sabbath.

Act 20:7 And upon the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow; and continued his speech until midnight.

This verse is not claiming that the church gathered on the first day of the week. The word used for "week" is not referring to the 7-day period. It is referring to the Sabbath or the 7th day of the week.

Two things should be noted. The word "day" is italicized in the King James Version 1611 Bible. This means that it is added in to make the English language flow. The second thing that is paramount is the word week was translated from the word Sabbath.

Reference Strong Concordance

Week:

σάββατον

Of Hebrew origin [H7676]; the Sabbath.

One of the tell-tale signs of this being about the 7th day and NOT THE FIRST DAY OF THE WEEK is that the JEWISH disciples gathered on the FIRST, REST, or 7th day to "break bread." That sounds strange right, "the first Sabbath?" Yes, a month has at least 3 Sabbaths on our Gregorian calendar.

(Note the Gregorian calendar was implemented by Pope Gregory. It is the standard calendar we use today. It shamefully altered time by changing the way we were to observe days months and years by observing the Sun, Moon, and stars)

There are also special RESTS called Sabbaths that Elohim instructed Israel to observe that do not align with the weekly Sabbath.

In efforts for the pagan churches to separate themselves from Judaism and the Torah, the law of Moses, the pagan churches completely ignore that the gathering on the first Sabbath was to break bread.

Let me rephrase that as a question. If you gather weekly on the first day, why aren't you also breaking REAL bread when you gather? If your claim becomes that you are breaking spiritual bread or are doing it, taking communion, you are getting further and further away from the actual context of Acts Chapter 20's story.

The translation should read, "Act 20:7 And upon the first of the Sabbath when the disciples came together to break bread..."

This not only redefines the gathering day to specify the first Sabbath it also tells us that the Law of Moses, the Torah, was being practiced by the disciples that gathered to break bread to observe one of the appointed feasts.

As I said earlier, we have been seduced by faithless teachers that have also searched the scriptures for reasons to deny healing power to the body of Christ because they do not have the faith required to heal people. The elders of the church are afraid that if they pour oil on someone's head for healing, (Like in James 5:13) they will be ridiculed for their disbelief.

The Word of Yahuah is needed for us to be like Christ and we must embrace the Word and seek it like we are looking for hidden treasures.

Jas 5:13 Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any merry? let him sing psalms.

Jas 5:14 Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord:

In truth, we ask him to give wisdom to those that would perform witchcraft to make a cure that we are eager to embrace for our problems. We don't understand the difference between biblical times witchcraft and biblical times healing because we deny his Spirit and the promises of his Word.

We say, Luke was a physician and give power to the false meaning of the word "physician" all based on one verse that has nothing to do with pharmaceutical medicine.

We completely reject the way Yahuah says biblical healing happens because we don't believe healing happens the same biblical way in our day and within our own lives. That is to our shame.

Yet we call ourselves “Christian.” We boast of faith and song and service in a church building and yet we wish for the day when we can gather again because we let them take that gathering day away.

For some, your answers against this will be demonizing attacks on me with some of you being full of doubtful faithless excuses. You may even seek out some biblical passage to reaffirm your stance against Christians of our day being used to perform his Miracles. For others, this statement is a call to take a stand with unwavering faith.

We should all be careful what we ask for in faith in his name. It is better to take action than to promise to take action and do nothing. Your word is only as good as the proof of your actions. When trust is called into question, people always review what you have done, not what you promise to do. We should be honest when no one is looking and it will be easy, to be honest when someone is looking. Little things done in the right direction become big things done in the right direction when you are consistent. Someone will always misrepresent you to bring you down. Expect it. They just want to see you defend yourself. They do not care about how it affects you. Knowing you did things right is a shield that you will call upon to help you block the attack.

NEVER ANSWER THE ATTACKERS' foolishness.

I have to remind myself of the same.

Others will review your past actions, NOT your response to the attack. Little white lies in the presence of a friend will be proof used against you when that friend is challenged to trust you. No small amount of dishonesty is ever going to lead you to righteousness in any situation. A clean flame will never cast its own shadow. We all make mistakes. Sometimes they are huge ones. Trust in you is not about your mistake, it is about how you handled your mistake. Do you follow through with, “a give-up” or “a cover-up” or do you circle back to the beginning and take action and do what you intended to do to make things right with your promised action as you should have in the beginning? A wise man once said, "It is easier to ask forgiveness than to beg for permission." The wise man left out the consequences of his statement declaration because when he is burned by you he will not trust you even though he says he forgave you.

Trust is never rebuilt. Trust is never rebuilt. Trust is never rebuilt.

People will always judge you by what you did, not what you promised to do to fix things now. If you want to fix your life, start with keeping your intended word for yourself. Make no vocal promise. Instead, take good clean action. Your action will reveal the proof that everyone will observe. Trust will follow.

If you are tempted to open your mouth with a promise, first taste your foot... again. ~ note to self

I said all of that because as soon as I start talking about Healing in the name of Yahshua, someone out there is going to look at my sins and use them to cast stones instead of enjoying and rejoicing in the healing power of Christ.

When it comes to Biblical healing, understand this; we are in spiritual warfare. A snake uses venom to cripple or kill its prey. The very symbol of Healthcare is two snakes surrounding the rod. This is the Rod of Aesculapius (also called Asklepios), the ancient mythical god of medicine.

One of the Ten Commandments is that we should have no God before Elohim yet our very healthcare system parades this false God before us when we go to its facilities for any kind of healing or therapy.

The serpent in scripture always represents Lucifer. It is the blood of Christ that cleanses us and washes away our sins and gives us hope and the promise of eternal life. Our protection and healing are in his promise. His promise is not in a vaccine that must be put into the bloodstream which of course also resembles a snake's fangs and the venom which mixes with our blood when bitten.

When Moses erected the pole with the bronze serpent in the wilderness it was for those Israelites that were murmuring AGAINST Yahuah's deliverance and provision. If you recall the time before this event, the children of Israel were slaves in Egypt, Elohim (God) brought plagues to Egypt at the hand of Moses and Pharaoh eventually let the people of Israel go free. Pharaoh then changed his mind and chased the children of Israel to the Red Sea. God opened the sea and the children of Israel crossed over on dry ground with a wall of water on either side of them. God caused the sea to drown the Egyptian army that was chasing them. On the other side of the sea, the children of Israel eventually became ungrateful and murmured against the food and safety that God provided by saying their life and food were better in Egypt. This ungratefulness angered God. Yahuah sent snakes to the encampment of Israel and many Israelites suffered FROM snake bites and died.

Currently, I am observing Christians that say they believe in Yahuah saving their soul for eternity but do not believe Yahuah will protect them for the remainder of their own lives. They are going to the healthcare system led by their false God for protection against the plague that God has allowed.

If you relate to the SAME story Yahshua told to Nicodemus in John Chapter 3, we can see that people (You and I) have been delivered by Yahuah through Christ yet they (we) refuse to trust him in the wilderness of our own lives for provisions and safety even after being delivered from Yahuah's wrath unto our blessed hope of eternal life. Some can trust Yahuah with their souls for eternity but still think they need a vaccine to protect themselves from death.

You say you, as a Christian, trust medical science yet medical science presents a false God that is often imaged (the Rod of Aesculapius) onto the bill you get in the mail and is on the building and even meets you at the door. If you recall, it is in complete defiance of Deuteronomy chapter 6 verses 5-9

Deu 6:5 And thou shalt love the LORD thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might.

Deu 6:6 And these words, which I command thee this day, shall be in

thine heart:

Deu 6:7 And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up.

Deu 6:8 And thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thine hand, and they shall be as frontlets between thine eyes.

Deu 6:9 And thou shalt write them upon the posts of thy house, and on thy gates.

Others that know Christ can't see or refuse to acknowledge, that Yahuah allowed the people of Israel to suffer and die from snake bites that he made to attack them after he delivered them from the plagues of Egypt and he delivered them from the angel of Death that passed over them and as he leads them from bondage going through the Red Sea on dry ground. These people saw some incredible miracles and still murmured against Yahuah.

With all that said, if Yahuah wants you to die from a snake bite (or a vaccine in this case) for murmuring against his, law, Sabbaths, Feasts, Food, safety, salvation, and provisions, you will die from a snake bite. Or you could Remember John Chapter 3 verse 14 where Yahshua reminded us of Moses lifting the serpent in the wilderness for OUR OWN LIFE just as Moses lifted the Serpent in the wilderness.

So, if the snake bites you (or you get forcefully vaccinated), if you look to the Son of Man that was also being lifted up (look to the cross event) just as Moses lifted the serpent in the wilderness, you will live with everlasting life.

Num 21:4 And they journeyed from mount Hor by the way of the Red sea, to compass the land of Edom: and the soul of the people was much discouraged because of the way.

Num 21:5 And the people spake against God, and against Moses, Wherefore have ye brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? for there is no bread, neither is there any water; and our soul loatheth this light bread.

Num 21:6 And the LORD sent fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people; and much people of Israel died.

Num 21:7 Therefore the people came to Moses, and said, We have sinned, for we have spoken against the LORD, and against thee; pray unto the LORD, that he take away the serpents from us. And Moses prayed for the people.

Num 21:8 And the LORD said unto Moses, Make thee a fiery serpent, and set it upon a pole: and it shall come to pass, that every one that is bitten, when he looketh upon it, shall live.

Num 21:9 And Moses made a serpent of brass, and put it upon a pole, and it came to pass, that if a serpent had bitten any man, when he beheld the serpent of brass, he lived.

Those that looked to the pole with the symbol of the dead bronze snake that God told Moses to make and lift before the people, made them live if bitten. As we observe the ancient cross of Christ, we have the promise of evading death and eternal life with the example of the Children of Israel murmuring against the provisions of Elohim.

John 3:14 And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up:

John 3:15 That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life.

Christian bible believers, we need to stop defending our sin as if Yahuah is somehow okay with it now that he washed us clean and forgave us. First, you play with sin and then sin plays with you. It will cost you more than you want to pay, keep you longer than you want to stay and it will ruin your life and the lives of all those affected by your play. It does not matter if you are a believer or not. Sin will redirect you away from Yahuah and put you on a path to destruction. Sin will drain you and your resources and then laugh at you as you struggle. You will reach for it for comfort and it will pull away teasing you as it goes. The more you give to it the more it will pretend to care and the more it will demand of you. No one gets to claim ignorance on Judgment day and it is rapidly approaching. I don't know what a sinner you are but I do know what a Savior he is. Yahshua told the woman that was caught in adultery and was about to be stoned to death, “go and sin no more.” You have been in a dark place and you know it. It is lonely and all you want is for someone to look past your mistakes and care. He is the light of the world and it is time to fall on your knees and turn away from everything that is draining your life away from Yahuah’s love and peace. Forget your ways. In all your ways acknowledge him and he promises to direct your paths. It is time for all of us to turn away from our wickedness and walk in the light. Let your light so shine before men so that they will see your good works and glorify our Father in Heaven. He said, come to me all of you that have had enough and are overburdened and tremendously weighed down and I will give you rest. Don't answer me, answer yourself. Do you have that rest? Have you ever asked for it or have you just expected it to be granted because you grew up in a Christian home? He is not going to answer prayers that do not align with his will. He said ask anything IN MY NAME and I will do it. If your request cannot be done in his name, why do you keep asking him to break his word?

UNDERSTAND THIS; HIS NAME is "THE WORD OF Yahuah." If you dismiss the Bible in favor of worldly philosophy, you bought a lie, and as long as you feed that lie you will never hear his voice. Turn away from that sin. He said in his word for you to come and to seek and to ask. If you have never asked for his will for your life you need to know that he considers you one of his lost sheep. The Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost. Does your pet hear your voice and know you when you come home?
Are they excited to see you? Do they follow you around the house waiting for you to greet them? Yahshua said, "My sheep hear my voice and I know them and they follow me and I give them eternal life and they are in my hand and no man can pluck them out of my hand." When was the last time you were excited to hear the word of Yahuah, to hear his voice? Soon no matter where you go in the world you will not be able to buy or sell anything without proof of being vaccinated. Make no mistake a mark is prepared and everyone will be forced to take it on either their right hand or on their forehead. No one will be able to buy or sell anything without the mark. If you know scripture you know that we all see that day rapidly approaching. THERE IS ENORMOUS PRIDE BEING STIRRED UP TO BE VACCINATED. Many will gladly show their mark of proof and will shame others for noncompliance. In scripture, it does not end well for anyone that has the mark. Never before, in the history of the world, has there been a demand by the governing leadership, for everyone to prove that they have the same health procedure done to breathe the free air or to trade. The Bible says that in the end times plagues and other disasters will be released on a grand scale. If you are a bible believer, I suggest that you open up and start with Romans Chapter 1 and read it through to the end of the book and get right with Yahuah. I say that to myself in my shame as well.

Understand this; Christ said that we believers will do what he did. We will heal people and we will feed people and we will perform things in his name that are greater than what he did and we will bring glory to Yahuah.

The world is about to get launched into the greatest darkness in its history and you are about to shine your light in that darkness in the name of Yahshua!

We all need to rehearse his laws and his feasts and to keep the Sabbaths and listen to the Prophets so that we will be ready for the show where we are the performers and the entire Host of Heaven is cheering us on with a mighty roar of excitement.

I am not going to pretend that I know the full measure of keeping any of the Law of Moses nor the feasts nor the Sabbaths. I also need to read the Prophets of scripture and rehearse their successes and failures as I live with my own. What I will say about all of this is that these actions that Israel was to perform are the rehearsal instructions that I believe keep the Tribulation Saints safe as they delight in the law of Yahuah during the Great Tribulation. We must learn them, love them, and apply what we can with our best understanding. We have his promise in Proverbs chapter 3 that we should all embrace.

Pro 3:1 My son, forget not my law; but let thine heart keep my commandments:

Pro 3:2 For length of days, and long life, and peace, shall they add to thee.

Pro 3:3 Let not mercy and truth forsake thee: bind them about thy neck; write them upon the table of thine heart:

Pro 3:4 So shalt thou find favour and good understanding in the sight of God and man.

Pro 3:5 Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.

Pro 3:6 In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

Pro 3:7 Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the LORD, and depart from evil.

Pro 3:8 It shall be health to thy navel, and marrow to thy bones.

Pro 3:9 Honour the LORD with thy substance, and with the firstfruits of all thine increase:

Pro 3:10 So shall thy barns be filled with plenty, and thy presses shall burst out with new wine.

Pro 3:11 My son, despise not the chastening of the LORD; neither be weary of his correction:

Pro 3:12 For whom the LORD loveth he correcteth; even as a father the son in whom he delighteth.

The Ten Commandments are paramount when it comes to loving Yahuah with all your heart and loving your neighbor as yourself.

Exodus 20:1 And God spake all these words, saying,

Exodus 20:2 I am the LORD thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

Exodus 20:3 Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

Exodus 20:4 Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth:

Exodus 20:5 Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I

the LORD thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me;

Exodus 20:6 And shewing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments.

Exodus 20:7 Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain; for the LORD will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

Exodus 20:8 Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy.

Exodus 20:9 Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work:

Exodus 20:10 But the seventh day is the sabbath of the LORD thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates:

Exodus 20:11 For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it.

Exodus 20:12 Honour thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

Exodus 20:13 Thou shalt not kill.

Exodus 20:14 Thou shalt not commit adultery.

Exodus 20:15 Thou shalt not steal.

Exodus 20:16 Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

Exodus 20:17 Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbour's.

Exodus 20:18 And all the people saw the thunderings, and the lightnings, and the noise of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking: and when the people saw it, they removed, and stood afar off.

Exodus 20:19 And they said unto Moses, Speak thou with us, and we will hear: but let not God speak with us, lest we die.

Exodus 20:20 And Moses said unto the people, Fear not: for God is come to prove you, and that his fear may be before your faces, that ye sin not.

Exodus 20:21 And the people stood afar off, and Moses drew near unto the thick darkness where God was.

Some things in the Leviticus Law may not apply to you. For example, in the Law of Moses, some things apply only to a woman. It would be ridiculous for a man to try and keep the laws that only apply to a woman. If you are not a farmer, how can you possibly keep laws about farming? With that said; embrace what applies to you. Don't forget that Christ is our high priest that presented himself as our perfect sacrifice.

I should also note that there are things that we are warned not to eat like Swine and shellfish etc... What I will say about that is that everything that happened to produce the fall of man was hinged on what the Serpent tricked the woman into eating. Yahuah had Moses warn us about pig meat. Perhaps we would all benefit from listening to his voice.

Elohim told Adam not to eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil and you as a believer may have no problem with that. You see the chaos and the death that Adam's choice produced on the whole world right up to this very minute. Many today would agree that God said it and Adam should have listened and maybe we wouldn't be in this mess.

If the bad tree's fruit were present today would most Christians eat from it? Why do I ask that?

The woman saw the fruit in Eden and it looked good. Bacon looks and smells delicious, right? Even gasoline has an attractive smell to some people. But one taste could send you to the emergency room or could be instantly fatal. I do not know of anyone dying from eating pork.

So what's the big deal? It is just meat, right? If you think about it, pigs are cleaners. What do I mean by that? They eat all the bad stuff. They eat everything even their poop. To illustrate what I mean by cleaners, I will use the example of Shellfish because they are also unclean according to scripture.

Try this experiment:

Take two clear glass fish tanks and fill them with dirty seawater. Place some living shellfish in one tank. The shellfish will clean all the bad stuff in the tank they were placed in. They are a filter and we don't eat filters. The kidneys of clean animals are not to be eaten according to scripture. The Bible tells us that clean animals chew the cud etc... I am no scientist when it comes to animals but I can see that there is a design behind what God said we can eat and what we cannot eat.

Elohim did say not to eat swine in Leviticus.

Lev 11:7 And the swine, though he divide the hoof, and be clovenfooted, yet he cheweth not the cud; he is unclean to you.

Lev 11:8 Of their flesh shall ye not eat, and their carcass shall ye not touch;

they are unclean to you.

Most Christians would agree, the abomination of desolation spoken by Daniel the prophet is a future event where the sacrifice of an unclean beast (swine) is performed by the antichrist on the altar in the future 3rd temple in Jerusalem. As stated earlier, if that future event that Christ spoke of declares a beast unclean and an abomination in God's holy Temple then Peter's vision in Acts chapter 10 was not about God changing his mind about EVERYONE eating unclean beasts. If Elohim nullified eating unclean beasts for Peter in Acts chapter 10 then he has to recertify the Law of Moses, The Torah, again for Mathew Chapter 24:15 where Christ spoke of the future event, “the abomination of desolation spoken by Daniel the Prophet.” Daniel's 70th week has not happened yet even though a pig was sacrificed on the altar in the temple in 70 AD.

Mat 24:15 When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand:)

If you read the story about Peter in Acts Chapter 10 you will see that he could not decipher the vision and instead concluded that the vision was not about eating meat but about his understanding of meeting with foreign countrymen that Jews considered unclean.

Act 10:28 And he said unto them, Ye know how that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to keep company, or come unto one of another nation; but God hath shewed me that I should not call any man common or unclean.

The rule Peter was in fear of breaking about meeting with foreign countrymen seems to be a tradition much like the traditions Christ spoke against throughout Mathew, Mark, Luke, and John. I say this because the Torah is consistent about Israel welcoming and dwelling among strangers and treating them as their people.

Leviticus 19:34- But the stranger that dwelleth with you shall be unto you as one born among you, and thou shalt love him as thyself; for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt: I am Yahweh your Elohim.

My challenge to believers is to reevaluate how the Law of Moses, the Torah, was nullified in grace yet a future swine or unclean beast on the altar would be an abomination that would reveal the antichrist. Either you are free from the law and this event is not or cannot be an abomination or the Law is and always has been in full play for Christianity and you misinterpreted Peter's vision about eating unclean beasts, and Paul's writings concerning keeping the law, as I did.

So if you agree that Adam should have obeyed Elohim about what he was told he could eat and not eat perhaps we would be wise to listen to Elohim about not eating swine. He said not to eat it and not to touch a dead carcass of swine.

To show you how seriously Satan takes this subject consider the following.

Many products today have been made using the bones and the ground-up cartilage joints of pigs. Many gummy products contain pork. Interesting that they use gummies as fruit snacks, right? Some research suggests that a product called "Dor" and that ends in "ritos" has pork in its ingredients. This needs to be verified.

We know that Satan accuses us before

Elohim day and night 24/7 of our sins and his accusation is righteous.

Remember that fruit tree in Eden? We should all start reading labels to see if pork is in the things that we eat. We may discover that pork is in other food products and that makes no logical sense whatsoever. The challenge we face is to do an internet search on foods that contain pork. I did and I was shocked. My research found that many sugars are ground down to powder by using pig bone. Pig bone is a dead pig. My friendly advice is to research this for your peace of mind.

There is something about obedience that keeps us safe from destruction. I am not perfect. I see this now and am seeing the logic in resisting eating what God called unclean beasts.

1 John 2:3 And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments.

1Jn 2:4 He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

1Jn 2:5 But whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in him.

1Jn 2:6 He that saith he abideth in him ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked.

So why is all of this important? Elohim gave Moses the Torah and we have the prophets and the New Test so that Israel would be well-rehearsed for the Great Tribulation. The Church is grafted into Israel and I believe the church is in for a huge wake-up about a few things.

Deu 14:8 And the swine, because it divideth the hoof, yet cheweth not the cud, it is unclean unto you: ye shall not eat of their flesh, nor touch their dead carcase.

The Sabbath or Seventh Day to rest.

Lev 23:3 Six days shall work be done: but the seventh day is the sabbath of rest, an holy convocation; ye shall do no work therein: it is the sabbath of the LORD in all your dwellings.

I. The Feast of PASSOVER

The Passover is a specific meal. The Fall of Man was because of disobedience to specific food instructions.

Exodus 12:1 And the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying,

Exodus 12:2 This month shall be unto you the beginning of months: it shall be the first month of the year to you.

Exodus 12:3 Speak ye unto all the congregation of Israel, saying, In the tenth day of this month they shall take to them every man a lamb, according to the house of their fathers, a lamb for an house:

Exodus 12:4 And if the household be too little for the lamb, let him and his neighbour next unto his house take it according to the number of the souls;

every man according to his eating shall make your count for the lamb.

Exodus 12:5 Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male of the first year: ye shall take it out from the sheep, or from the goats:

Exodus 12:6 And ye shall keep it up until the fourteenth day of the same month: and the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it in the evening.

Exodus 12:7 And they shall take of the blood, and strike it on the two side posts and on the upper door post of the houses, wherein they shall eat it.

Exodus 12:8 And they shall eat the flesh in that night, roast with fire, and unleavened bread; and with bitter herbs they shall eat it.

Exodus 12:9 Eat not of it raw, nor sodden at all with water, but roast with fire; his head with his legs, and with the purtenance thereof.

Exodus 12:10 And ye shall let nothing of it remain until the morning; and that which remaineth of it until the morning ye shall burn with fire.

Exodus 12:11 And thus shall ye eat it; with your loins girded, your shoes on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and ye shall eat it in haste: it is the LORD'S passover.

Exodus 12:12 For I will pass through the land of Egypt this night, and will smite all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgment: I am the LORD.

Exodus 12:13 And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye are: and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt.

Exodus 12:14 And this day shall be unto you for a memorial; and ye shall keep it a feast to the LORD throughout your generations; ye shall keep it a feast by an ordinance for ever.

When Adam and Eve were driven out of EDEN their diet was changed from Fruit to BREAD.

Bread plays a key role in the PASSOVER event that Elohim (God) told the children of Israel to observe and perform every year forever. If you are a Christian and you are not of Israeli heritage (bloodline), upon your belief in embracing Christ for yourself you are grafted into their ordinances. Nowhere in scripture do we find Yahshua telling his followers to ignore the Passover celebration meal.

I have stated many times that Passover is an end-times rehearsal for our Exodus because every year they were to have their clothes on and staff in hand ready to simulate leaving in the morning. The Last Supper of Christ is celebrated every year in the springtime in the first Hebrew month starting on the 14th day because the FIRST supper was the Passover. It was a meal of lamb and unleavened bread and wine, eaten in haste, with everyone fully dressed and ready to travel, by all the children of Israel in preparation for their departure from the bondage of Egypt. The day before the Passover began Elohim (God) told Moses to have the children of Israel kill a lamb and take its blood and put the blood on the doorposts and lintel. After the sun went down they were all to remain inside their homes all night. This was in response to the Pharaoh's decree that all the firstborn of Israel would die. So Elohim turned Pharaoh's murderous will onto his people. That night, Elohim caused the Angel of Death to PASSOVER the land of EGYPT. The firstborn of each house was spared in every house that had lambs' blood on the doorposts and lintel. Every single house in Egypt that did not have the lambs' blood had someone inside the house die.

As the children of Israel departed Egypt the next morning they ate unleavened bread because they needed to move so quickly that they didn't even have time for their bread to rise. These were the days of unleavened bread.

The LAST supper was called the last supper because Christ said that HE would not eat again this annual celebration meal that they would continue to eat until he ate it with his disciples in the restored KINGDOM. (When you pray the Our Father Prayer, this is the KINGDOM you are asking to come when you say, "thy Kingdom come...") They, his apostles, continued to celebrate the PASSOVER meal AFTER CHRIST ROSE FROM THE DEAD and that is evident in the book of ACTS when they were observing the days of unleavened bread. The celebration is required FOREVER for Israel. Christ will resume eating it with them when the KINGDOM is restored to Israel. You say I am a Christian, not a Jew. Friend, if you believe you are a Christian, then you are grafted into Israel. You become part of their heritage. You are not going to have any oil in your lamp to light your way if you refuse to fill it with his ways. Yes, I agree that he is the way the truth, and the life and he practiced this and you are to be like Christ. He said as often as you eat THIS meal (The Passover) and drink this cup, do it in remembrance of me.

Consider the following:

One of the Ten Commandments is, Thou shall have no other Gods before me. Many of you are about to drag the pagan god Ishtar (Easter) before God and you are going to do so in the name of Christ and then defile your body, which is the temple, of Elohim. Many will defile their temple by eating an unclean beast or ham dinner in direct violation of the Law of Moses and do so on the day he specifically gave food instructions. (It was food instructions in Eden that were disobeyed, that caused the fall of man) You may even find it embarrassing to say the true holiday name because you have been trained by religious teachings to embrace the name of a false god, and avoid the true PASSOVER celebration. You even practice the pagan ritual of fertility and say, “Happy Easter” to everyone. You think PASSOVER does not apply to you even though Elohim told Israel to observe it every year at the same time as an ordinance forever. Yet you believe you are grafted into Israel and their ways when you accepted Christ as your Savior.

Satan does not want us to celebrate Yahuah's instructions and has put a stumbling block in the face of Christianity, and that trap is also in the Bible in the book of Acts. Satan relies on the fact that we do not know the scriptures or we are careless with their meanings. In Eden, the Serpent was given the license to change the words of Elohim (God) when he was speaking with Adam's wife, Eve. She was redirected away from the true instructions of Elohim about what to eat, and not to eat, and left with the thought that Elohim deliberately mislead Adam because he doesn't want his eyes to be open, knowing good and evil.

Easter is NOT a Christian celebration in Acts 12:4. The translator of the scripture used the PAGAN GODS' NAME "EASTER" in place of the PASSOVER CELEBRATION that Herod is speaking of because the translator identified the time being celebrated with their pagan custom that was celebrated at the same time. Herod was the Jewish KING and was being political by holding off on killing Peter, with the author of the book noting that the Jews were KEEPING THE PASSOVER and were at the point of the celebration observing the days of unleavened bread.

Act 12:1 Now about that time Herod the king stretched forth his hands to vex certain of the church.

Act 12:2 And he killed James the brother of John with the sword.

Act 12:3 And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also. (Then were the days of unleavened bread.)

Act 12:4 And when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers to keep him; intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people.

Act 12:5 Peter, therefore, was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him.

We now know that to celebrate “Easter” is to drag a false God before Elohim and insult his laws and ordinances for Israel the church to do, and we know many will do so in the name of Christ.

Satan stands before Elohim (God) day and night and accuses us of our sins and his accusations are righteous. We may be saved by grace, but we still have rules to follow given by Elohim to keep clear from the harm that Satan can and will bring on us when we transgress the Law.

We all need to turn away from this pagan name and its practices so that we can get on the right path, observing Yahuah's ordinances, keeping The PASSOVER, along with our TORAH (The Law of Moses) journey, moving toward the time of his return and restored Kingdom.

Lev 23:4 These are the feasts of the LORD, even holy convocations, which ye shall proclaim in their seasons.

Lev 23:5 In the fourteenth day of the first month at even is the LORD'S passover.

II. The feast of UNLEAVENED BREAD

Lev 23:6 And on the fifteenth day of the same month is the feast of unleavened bread unto the LORD: seven days ye must eat unleavened bread.

Lev 23:7 In the first day ye shall have an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work therein.

Lev 23:8 But ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD seven days: in the seventh day is an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work therein.

III. The feast of FIRSTFRUITS

Lev 23:9 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

Lev 23:10 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye be come into the land which I give unto you, and shall reap the harvest thereof, then ye shall bring a sheaf of the firstfruits of your harvest unto the priest:

Lev 23:11 And he shall wave the sheaf before the LORD, to be accepted for you: on the morrow after the sabbath the priest shall wave it.

Lev 23:12 And ye shall offer that day when ye wave the sheaf an he lamb without blemish of the first year for a burnt offering unto the LORD.

Lev 23:13 And the meat offering thereof shall be two tenth deals of fine flour mingled with oil, an offering made by fire unto the LORD for a sweet savour: and the drink offering thereof shall be of wine, the fourth part of an hin.

Lev 23:14 And ye shall eat neither bread, nor parched corn, nor green ears, until the selfsame day that ye have brought an offering unto your God: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

IV. The feast of WEEKS

Lev 23:15 And ye shall count unto you from the morrow after the sabbath, from the day that ye brought the sheaf of the wave offering; seven sabbaths shall be complete:

Lev 23:16 Even unto the morrow after the seventh sabbath shall ye number fifty days; and ye shall offer a new meat offering unto the LORD.

Lev 23:17 Ye shall bring out of your habitations two wave loaves of two tenth deals: they shall be of fine flour; they shall be baked with leaven; they are the firstfruits unto the LORD.

Lev 23:18 And ye shall offer with the bread seven lambs without blemish of the first year, and one young bullock, and two rams: they shall be for a burnt offering unto the LORD, with their meat offering, and their drink offerings, even an offering made by fire, of sweet savour unto the LORD.

Lev 23:19 Then ye shall sacrifice one kid of the goats for a sin offering, and two lambs of the first year for a sacrifice of peace offerings.

Lev 23:20 And the priest shall wave them with the bread of the firstfruits for a wave offering before the LORD, with the two lambs: they shall be holy to the LORD for the priest.

Lev 23:21 And ye shall proclaim on the selfsame day, that it may be an holy convocation unto you: ye shall do no servile work therein: it shall be a statute for ever in all your dwellings throughout your generations.

Lev 23:22 And when ye reap the harvest of your land, thou shalt not make clean riddance of the corners of thy field when thou reapest, neither shalt thou gather any gleaning of thy harvest: thou shalt leave them unto the poor, and to the stranger: I am the LORD your God.

V. The feast of TRUMPETS

Lev 23:23 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

Lev 23:24 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, In the seventh month, in the first day of the month, shall ye have a sabbath, a memorial of blowing of trumpets, an holy convocation.

Lev 23:25 Ye shall do no servile work therein: but ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

VI. The feast of ATONEMENT

Lev 23:26 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

Lev 23:27 Also on the tenth day of this seventh month there shall be a day of atonement: it shall be an holy convocation unto you; and ye shall afflict your souls, and offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

Lev 23:28 And ye shall do no work in that same day: for it is a day of atonement, to make an atonement for you before the LORD your God.

Lev 23:29 For whatsoever soul it be that shall not be afflicted in that same day, he shall be cut off from among his people.

Lev 23:30 And whatsoever soul it be that doeth any work in that same day, the same soul will I destroy from among his people.

Lev 23:31 Ye shall do no manner of work: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

Lev 23:32 It shall be unto you a sabbath of rest, and ye shall afflict your souls: in the ninth day of the month at even, from even unto even, shall ye celebrate your sabbath.

VII. The feast of TABERNACLES

Lev 23:33 And the LORD spake unto

Moses, saying,

Lev 23:34 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, The fifteenth day of this seventh month shall be the feast of tabernacles for seven days unto the LORD.

Lev 23:35 On the first day shall be an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work therein.

Lev 23:36 Seven days ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD: on the eighth day shall be an holy convocation unto you; and ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD: it is a solemn assembly; and ye shall do no servile work therein.

Lev 23:37 These are the feasts of the LORD, which ye shall proclaim to be holy convocations, to offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD, a burnt offering, and a meat offering, a sacrifice, and drink offerings, every thing upon his day:

Lev 23:38 Beside the sabbaths of the LORD, and beside your gifts, and beside all your vows, and beside all your freewill offerings, which ye give unto the LORD.

Lev 23:39 Also in the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when ye have gathered in the fruit of the land, ye shall keep a feast unto the LORD seven days: on the first day shall be a sabbath, and on the eighth day shall be a sabbath.

Lev 23:40 And ye shall take you on the first day the boughs of goodly trees, branches of palm trees, and the boughs of thick trees, and willows of the brook; and ye shall rejoice before the LORD your God seven days.

Lev 23:41 And ye shall keep it a feast unto the LORD seven days in the year.

It shall be a statute for ever in your generations: ye shall celebrate it in the seventh month.

Lev 23:42 Ye shall dwell in booths seven days; all that are Israelites born shall dwell in booths:

Lev 23:43 That your generations may know that I made the children of Israel to dwell in booths, when I brought them out of the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

Lev 23:44 And Moses declared unto the children of Israel the feasts of the LORD.

Yahuah gave his only Son to suffer a brutal death and for him to Rise Again so that you and I may have abundant life and power in his eternal and Holy Name.

His promise; ask anything in my name and I will do it!

Yahuah rained manna from heaven for the nation of Israel in the wilderness and he fed five thousand with five loaves and two fish.

Our Father that is in Heaven, HOLY IS YOUR NAME!

Bring on your kingdom with New Jerusalem coming down out of heaven and fulfill your will on Earth just like it is fulfilled in Heaven. GIVE US THIS DAY OUR DAILY BREAD and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those that trespass against us. Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from EVIL FOR the KINGDOM is yours and the POWER is YOURS for us to use at our request ~ Amen

Mat 5:14 Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid.

Mat 5:15 Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house.

Mat 5:16 Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

Some of you still need to invite Yahshua into your heart. You are wrestling and have deeply loved the name of Jesus. It is time to let the son of Zeus go... Turn away from that pagan name and embrace the true and sacred name of Yahshua. Invite him into your heart right now.

You know that Yahuah is above but also dwells in our temple and it is time to evict the blasphemous name and embrace his sacred name with all its power and might so that we may serve him and fulfill the commission given to the Apostles so that the Father will bring on the Kingdom and New Jerusalem will come down out of Heaven.

John 14:12 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father.

Do you believe him?

Let your light shine!
